Contend Project Unsafe In Populous Area

Seek Halt In Building Of Ohio Atomic Plant

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some members of Congress and labor unions in Michigan are trying hard to stop construction of a private atomic plant on Lake Erie. They contend the plant would be unsafe in a populous area. They argue that an explosion could endanger lives in Ohio and Michigan.

On the other side, the staff of the Atomic Energy Commission says the worst explosion that could occur at the plant—going up at Lagoona Beach, Mich., near Toledo—would equal 200 kilograms of TNT.

This, says the AEC staff, "would not constitute unreasonable risk to the general public." But the staff adds there should be "further investigation" to make sure that no worse explosion could occur.

The plant is being built at a cost of 43 million dollars by a private utility combine called the Power Reactor Development Co. Rep. Charles A. Vanik (D-Ohio) has expressed fear that an explosion at the Lagoona Beach plant could menace life in northwest Ohio, including his home city of Cleveland.

On the House floor, Vanik conceded that expert opinion holds that even a large scale nuclear accident has a hazard limit of 45 miles. But he added:

"I do not believe the evidence at all excludes the possibility of contaminating the waters of Lake Erie and contaminating the air which passes over the city of Cleveland."

"I think our concern is more remote than it is for the citizens of Toledo who are immediately adjacent to the site on the south."

A similar view was expressed by Rep. T. Ludlow Ashley (D-Ohio), whose home is near Toledo.

600 Persons Hear Soprano Here

An audience of 600 persons enjoyed the singing last evening of Theresa Green, young soprano, as she closed out the 1956-57 season of the Community Concert Association. Her voice brought repeated encores at the Salem High School Auditorium.

Miss Green was accompanied by Kenneth Zimmerli, who offered three numbers of his own. The concert was the 40th brought here in the past 10 years by the concert association.

The association is currently conducting its 11th anniversary membership campaign for the 1957-58 season. Saturday is the last day for memberships.

Headquarters for the campaign are in the Chamber of Commerce building. Additional information or memberships can be obtained by calling Edgewood 2-4782.

House Committee Rips 'Unprecedented Practices'

Jury Will Get Redmon Case

Accused Of Setting Blaze Fatal To 8

CINCINNATI (AP)—The trial of Arthur L. Redmon, 29, charged with first degree murder in a multiple-death apartment house fire here last November was expected to go to the jury today.

Redmon is accused of having started a fire which caused the death of eight persons. The state claims he started the blaze in a fit of anger at Mrs. Johnetta Clark because she spurned his attentions.

Mrs. Clark figured in one of two courtroom outbursts Thursday during closing arguments by Assistant Urosecutor Melvin Rueger.

As Rueger completed his argument in which he asked for the death penalty, Mrs. Clark screamed:

"The prosecutor asks for no mercy when he didn't do it."

She fled from the courtroom weeping.

Earlier Mrs. Clark testified for the state that Redmon had threatened her life but she later appeared as a defense witness and repudiated that statement.

The other flareup came when Rueger told the jury that "for the last few days the conduct by the defense counsel would lead you to believe that the police and the prosecutor are crooks."

Defense attorney Harry McIlwain leaped up to object, claiming "at no time was there any insinuation that the prosecutor was anything but an honorable gentleman."

"It's a little late for an apology," was Rueger's retort. The defense has claimed that Redmon was beaten and kicked and tricked into signing an alleged confession which he later repudiated.

Both the defense and the state will complete their closing arguments today.

Japanese Boat Sinks; Over 100 Feared Lost

HIROSHIMA (AP)—A small ferryboat carrying more than twice its registered passenger capacity rammed a rocky obstruction in Japan's picturesque Inland Sea today and sank quickly. More than 100 persons were feared lost.

The coast guard reported 222 persons were aboard the small vessel. It said 29 bodies had been recovered, 73 persons were missing and 120 had been rescued.

The national police, reporting 219 aboard, said there were 27 dead, 97 missing and 95 rescued.

The crowd was returning from a visit to Ta Temple.

UAW Convention Will End Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today slashed 23 per cent from new funds requested by the State Department and the United States Information Agency. It criticized them both for what it called "amazing and unprecedented" personnel practices.

It refused to approve any money for 2,123 new positions the agencies requested and for continuance of 950 jobs established during the present fiscal year without prior consideration or appropriations by Congress.

Sharply Worded Report

In a sharply worded report written by Rep. Rooney (D-N.Y.), the committee decried "fiscal irresponsibility on the part of the State Department" and "irresponsible handling of the taxpayers' money" in connection with foreign programs financed with funds appropriated to the President.

The report accompanied a bill recommending these appropriations for the fiscal year starting July 1:

State Department $180,382,743 a cut of $4,331,809, or almost 2 1/2 per cent, from presidential requests and $41,317,329 less than was provided this year.

U. S. Information Agency $106,100,000, a 26 per cent cut amounting to $37,900,000 and $5,900,000 less than was provided this year. The committee stipulated that Voice of America overseas broadcast stations are not to be cut and cautioned against "propagandizing the American public."

Funds appropriated to the president for international cultural and trade fair programs $10,900,000, a cut of $7,600,000 or 41 per cent, from requests and 7 1/2 million less than current year appropriations.

Justice Department $227,855,000 a 3 per cent cut amounting to $6,800,000 but an increase of $11,811,350 over current year money. The FBI was allotted every dollar it requested, including a $5,940,000 boost over this year's funds.

Catholic Schools Of County To Hold Bee On Saturday

Fifteen spelling bee champions from Catholic schools throughout Columbiana County will compete at East Liverpool Saturday in a contest to select the parochial school representative for the spelling bee finals at Canton April 26.

The county event will be held at B'nai Israel Temple, 401 W. Fifth St., East Liverpool, near St. Aloysius school which is being remodeled and cannot be the scene of this year's contest.

Salem St. Paul's school spelling champs in the contest are Paulette Begalla, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Begalla of the Pidgeon Rd.; Ida Ann Turri, 13, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Turri of 683 E. Fourth St. and John DeFavero, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph

Hussein To Ask Former Defense Chief To Form New Government, Is Report

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—King Hussein was expected today to call on Abdel Halim Nimr to form a new government. Nimr is a close associate of Suleiman Nabulsi, who was dismissed as premier by the king on Wednesday.

(A Cairo dispatch in the newspaper Al Messaa said Nimr had already been named premier-designate.)

Nimr, 40, was defense and interior minister in Nabulsi's Cabinet. He is described as a strong-willed and aggressive politician, but not as fiery as Nabulsi. Both belong to the National Socialist party. Nimr would encourage no difficulties in forming a Cabinet, since the party and blocs aligned with it could command a decisive majority in the 40-man parliament.

Earlier the King was reported ready to reappoint Nabulsi. Informed sources say Nimr could be expected to carry out the policies of Nabulsi and the National Socialist party.

Nabulsi said he would refuse American aid if this required him to oppose communism. Though he is not a Communist, Nabulsi frequently agreed to exchange diplomatic relations with the Soviets. Hussein was said to have summoned Nabulsi to the palace following a long night session between the young King and his top advisers. Earlier Thursday former Foreign Minister Hussein Fakhril-Khadi failed in an attempt to put together a new government.

Nabulsi's resignation at Hussein's request, apparently given without any quibbling by the Premier, aroused widespread speculation in nearby Lebanon that it was a prearranged job aimed at getting two extreme leftists out of Nabulsi's old Cabinet.

The Beirut version was that Hussein would give one or two leading politicians the chance to form a new government, although they would have little chance of succeeding because of a unified opposition bloc. Then Hussein would ask Nabulsi to re-form his Cabinet, dropping Abdullah Rimawi, minister of state for foreign affairs, and Abdul Kader Salem, minister of agriculture.

SEES GOOD RELATIONS RESTORED — Canadian Ambassador A. D. P. Heeney seems in good humor as he talks to newsmen after an unscheduled call on President Eisenhower at the White House.

Heeney emphasized the grave importance which the Canadian government and people attach to the Norman case. He was confident that "logic, good sense and fairness" will prevail and that friendly relations "ultimately" will be restored.

Deny Clearing Norman Data For Publication

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert Morris, counsel of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said today the State Department has not asked for an opportunity to check any future testimony about foreign officials before publication.

The State Department, meantime, challenged earlier reports that it had cleared for publication the transcript of a hearing involving Canadian diplomat E. H. Norman.

The subcommittee's release of closed-door testimony linking Norman to communism, after he already had been cleared by his own government, aroused angry protests in Canada.

Norman, who was the Canadian ambassador to Egypt, committed suicide in Cairo after publication of the subcommittee transcript.

The New York Times said today the Norman case data has been traced to an Army intelligence unit.

The newspaper, in a dispatch from Washington by E. W. Kenworthy, said, "It was learned that an Army G-2 report drawn up in 1950 had come into the subcommittee's hands."

"This report contained security material provided by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Some of the material was attributed to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police."

In Washington a staff member of the subcommittee released a statement by Eastland and Jenner saying the FBI has corroborated the subcommittee's information about Norman's alleged Communist ties in 1939 and 1940.

The Canadian government protested what it called the "irresponsible allegations" against Norman, and advised the State Department two days ago it reserved the right to halt further exchanges of security information with this government unless assured it would be withheld from congressional committees.

It said it was willing for such information to be passed on to committees of Congress only when it specifically agreed — a condition.

Bliss Names Wingard To New Position

James K. Wingard of 1750 Cleveland St. has been appointed manager of engineering of the Press Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. It was announced Thursday by Robert Potter, company president.

Associated with the Bliss Company for 20 years, Mr. Wingard has served in various executive engineering capacities. Since 1953 he has been assistant chief engineer of Bliss' Rolling Mill Division here.

In his new post he will be responsible for coordination of all press engineering activities in Bliss' various manufacturing divisions. He will make the company's general office at Canton his headquarters.

Wingard majored in mechanical engineering at Ohio State University, and has taken special courses in metallurgy and related subjects at Youngstown University. During World War II he spent three years in the Navy "Sea Bees."

He is a member of the Association of Iron and Steel Engineers and of the Engineering Society of Western Pennsylvania.

3 Face Layoffs As Result Of Fund Problem

House Appropriations Committee Confers In Washington

City and rural residents will not receive delivered mail tomorrow since the Salem Postoffice will shut down operations Saturday, with only the Postoffice lobby left open.

The shutdown is being carried out in conjunction with curtailments in postal service called for by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Three men of the 42-man force will be laid off work at the office tomorrow and only one clerk will be on duty to dispatch mail. Two other layoffs may follow after two men return from vacations, according to Postmaster L. D. Beardmore.

Collections will be made at downtown collection boxes tomorrow, but only special delivery mail will be delivered.

Will Not Sort Mail

Businesses will be able to pick up some mail from Postoffice boxes tomorrow, but mail received to-night will not be sorted, Beardmore said.

Also affecting Salem will be the limitations of hours the window service will be in operation. Beginning Monday, windows will open at 8:30 instead of the usual 8 a.m. opening hour and will close at 5 p.m. Windows will be closed as usual on Wednesday afternoons.

Since two deliveries are being made now to Salem businesses, the city will be unaffected by the postmaster general's edict that only two deliveries be made to businesses as of Monday.

If the curtailments continue, money order issuances in second and third class offices will be suspended, and the sending of third class mail, except certain medical items, will be discontinued as of April 29, the postmaster said. Reimbursement to employees for purchases of uniforms for the balance of the quarter also will be suspended.

Confer In Washington

Meanwhile the House Appropriations Committee was to meet in Washington today to decide whether Postmaster General Summerfield should get the 47 million dollars extra he says he needs to operate mail service normally through June.

Most Democratic Committee members agreed informally at a caucus Thursday to give him 41 to 43 million, a figure reportedly agreeable to committee Republicans. Last week, a subcommittee recommended 17 million. Summerfield made it plain this was far from enough.

Whatever the committee recommends, the House can't act until Monday — it's not meeting today. The Senate was reported ready to act as soon as the House sends it a bill.

Summerfield told newsmen Thursday he would not be able to restore any of the scheduled mail service cuts until a bill giving him sufficient funds has passed both House and Senate and has been signed by President Eisenhower.

Injunction Filed

A suit was filed in Federal District Court Thursday seeking to restrain Summerfield from suspending the third class mail service.

Associated Third - Class Mail Users Inc., with headquarters in Washington, and Spencer Gifts, Inc., of Atlantic City, N. J., filed the injunction suit jointly. They contended Summerfield's order, as it applies to third class mail, "constitutes an exercise of unlawful authority." They said that, unless the injunction is issued, they "will continue to suffer irrevocable damages."

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) told the postmaster general Thursday, during a Senate Appropriations Committee hearing, that he had heard "by the grapevine" that the House committee might give Summerfield 41 million dollars.

Summerfield replied that if Congress gave him 41 million, then he would rescind all the cuts he could, but that he wouldn't do it.

Nation's Homebuilding Pace Drops In March

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's homebuilding pace declined again in March, to the lowest rate since 1949 for both the month and the indicated annual building rate.

The figures were reported by the Labor Department and the construction industry fired back immediately with a statement accusing the government of "economic brinkmanship" through the tight money policy. The builders called for immediate action to ease mortgage credit.

The Labor Department said March housing starts totaled 83,000 units, up seasonally 28 per cent from February but only 880,000 on a seasonally-adjusted annual basis.

The March total was 16 per cent under March last year. It was the lowest March total since 1949.

The adjusted annual rate of 880,000 units also was the lowest such rate since 1949 and compared with the record 1,329,000 units actually built in 1955.

The industry view was set out in a statement by George S. Good-year, president of the National Assn. of Home Builders. He urged Congress and the Eisenhower administration to "stop gambling with the welfare of the American people."

Goodyear said the March rate, nearly 300,000 dwellings a year short of the 1956 output, means that the public is losing 1,000 homes every working day—"practically all of it in the lower cost brackets."

"The Congress can scarcely wait upon administration action. The Federal Reserve Board by its tight money policies and its blithe assumption that housing is post-ponable has kept the home-building industry tottering on the brink of disaster."

"This economic brinkmanship is a dangerous game that the country no longer can afford to play."

BUYS O'NEILL'S HOME

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The First Baptist Church here has purchased Gov. C. William O'Neill's home for $32,000, tax records in the Franklin County Court House indicate. The Rev. J. Walter Sillen, pastor, has been using the home as a parsonage for the past two weeks. O'Neill moved from his home into the governor's mansion about two months ago.

Most of the Columbia force carries his sticks and many have gone to colleagues in other cities.

Greatest Dancer

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—After 52 years in show business, Fred Astaire would still rather talk with his feet than his face.

One of the most conscious artists of his generation when it comes to his trade, which is dancing, Fred is merely self-conscious when it comes to conversation about himself.

Ask him a question, and immediately his foot begins to swing nervously, as though his sophisticated toes wanted to tap the answer in a Morse code of their own. The man distrusts speech because, unlike a dance step, he can't rehearse and polish it to the perfection he aspires to.

Astaire, who recently completed his 30th film "Funny Face," in which he co-stars with Audrey Hepburn, will be 58 next month. Here he is—unrehearsed:

"I have been called the greatest dancer in the world. That is unbelievably complimentary — and undeniably erroneous. It rocks me when someone says it."

"What I have done is stand the test of time in my field—musical comedy and movie dancing."

"People today are so age-conscious. It burns me up sometime. I don't think of myself as being any older than I started in this business."

"I don't do anything particular to keep in shape. I don't have to. I play a little golf, and I keep a small racing breeding farm—three mares and four fillies."

"My stable has paid well over the years. I won a quarter of a million dollars with one horse—Triplecat."

"Can a professional dancer do well at ballroom dancing? Naturally he can—but he rarely finds the time. The cha cha is a great favorite step now, but over the years my own favorite has been the fox trot. It's very comfortable."

"In films I've had a dozen great actresses as dance partners—ranging from Ginger Rogers and Joan Crawford to Miss Hepburn. No, I won't say which was the best—or the worst. Would you?"

"Men dancers last longer at the business than women generally. There are two reasons. They have more physical strength—and the girls get bored with professional dancing in time. It's too hard a life."

"Today show business is readily frantic and more competitive than ever. Everybody's in show business."

"Television is all right for the youngsters, but I see no reason to hurry into it. I've reached the point where I don't have to grab all the money in sight."

"Since my wife died two years ago I find again that work is my only real happiness. I try to think that the good old days are today and tomorrow—not all the yesterdays."

"I don't say you have to enjoy your work to win success, but I don't see how you can feel successful in life unless you are doing something you enjoy."

NORTH BENTON — Miss Marilyn McCausland and Donald D. Crawford were married Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church of Sebring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCausland of RD 1, North Benton and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Crawford of 216 West Virginia Ave., Sebring.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Richard Drake of the Mt. Union Methodist Church of Alliance.

A half hour of wedding music preceded the ceremony with Miss Sandra Myers, church organist, playing the wedding music including "Oh Perfect Day."

Francis Irwin, soloist, sang, "Because Love Never Changes," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a white lace over tulle gown with pleated nylon. The gown had a lace yoke with a twin back collar and long sleeves and lace cuffs.

Her bouquet was a white orchid on a white ribbon and her jewelry was a strand of pearls and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James McCausland of Indianapolis, and attendants were Miss Grace Crawford, sister of the bridegroom and Sandra Menges.

James McCausland of Indianapolis, brother of the bride, served as best man.

A reception followed in the church parlor.

The newlyweds left for a week's wedding trip and will reside at RD 1, North Benton.

4,000 Steel Workers Idled By Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. was banking blast furnaces and open hearths today and announced layoffs for 4,000 employees as a result of an "unauthorized" strike of some 10 trainmen on the River Terminal Railway.

River Terminal, a 26-mile switching line in the Cuyahoga River Valley flats, is a Republic subsidiary but serves also the Sun Oil Co. plant and Reilly Tar & Chemical Co.

Should the walkout over wage demands and work schedules continue, a Republic spokesman said, an additional 5,000 steel mill employees would be laid off. The banking of six blast furnaces and 14 open hearths started Thursday night, a few hours after the 3 p.m. walkout began.

River Terminal Railway said that when the strike started, the carrier was negotiating the wage and work schedule issues in a session with a mediator assigned from Washington and representatives of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Homer Ellis, assistant president of the BLF&E, asserted that the walkout was "wholly unauthorized by our organization and the trainmen." The Railway Labor Act prohibits striking during mediation, and Ellis said:

"We had no knowledge of this thing. It is and has always been our desire to comply strictly with provisions of the Railway Labor Act. We have always followed it religiously."

Presidential Criticism

If President Eisenhower had thought about his answer more carefully, he would not have replied to a press-conference questioner last Wednesday that he did not mind criticism as long as it was fair and just.

Nobody minds criticism when it is fair and just; at least no one admits he minds it. But all criticism hurts a little or a lot, depending on the sensitivity of the person under criticism.

What the President very likely would have said if he had taken full counsel of his own mind would have been this:

"I am only human. Criticism burns me up, though I usually cool off in time to remember that it is one of the penalties of my job in the White House, the same as it was one of the penalties of being a military leader.

"What hurts is to know I am being sniped at by people whose sole purpose is to discredit me, the office I hold, the party that I represent, or all three for political purposes. That is hard to take. But every man who gets into the White House must make up his mind to take it, because there is nothing he can do about it.

"What hurts most, though, is the realization that so many of my countrymen are suckers for the yapping-dog school of presidential criticism that flourishes because one yap leads to another until the pack is in full cry — and no one ever asks what started the yapping in the first place.

"This is what is happening to me in my second term. It makes my neck red, but I cannot say it surprises me. It was bound to happen. I am limited to two terms, and the king-makers must destroy me before they can start the buildup for a new king.

"Yes, criticism makes me mad, especially when it is by political pique. But it is one of the penalties of being in the White House, which is a combination of throne room and pillory."

Grin And Bear It

Russia's protest over the way its ships have been handled by the United States in the Panama Canal could have been expected.

It is surprising that the Kremlin waited so long to exploit this ready-made opportunity to embarrass the United States.

No sooner had proposals been made to internationalize the Suez Canal last summer than Americans winced at the knowledge they would never let their canal in Panama be internationalized.

Unlike the Suez Canal, lying entirely inside the boundaries of Egypt, the Panama Canal lies entirely inside the boundaries of Panama, which lies inside the boundaries of Nicaragua, from which it was obtained by methods closely resembling seizure. That is what Teddy Roosevelt thought they were, and he should know.

All these things are in the record; they are historic fact. There never has been any secret about them. Yet for reasons unknown, the Soviet Union, which has been fishing in troubled waters in the Suez Canal, has not troubled the waters in the Panama Canal until this time.

There is nothing to do but grin and bear it. Obviously, the Panama Canal is different from the Suez Canal. Obviously, the United States can be trusted and Egypt cannot be trusted. Obviously, the Russians are trying to start something. Obviously.

Obviously, the United States is not going to let anybody get to first base with a campaign to internationalize the Panama Canal.

Surprise Of The Year

It is a sour combination to read after working on an income tax report that the U.S. Senate may restore all of the cuts made by the House in the presidential budget.

It also is a sour combination to be reminded by the pressure antics of the Post Office Department that government spending is untouchable, after being reminded by the Internal Revenue Service that a individual is permitted to spend only what the government does not confiscate.

If Congress had a sense of tact, it would refrain just before the April 15 tax deadline from doing anything to remind taxpayers of the government's unmanageable proportions. They are kept that way by income taxes.

No other tax could possibly raise enough revenue to give spenders in government everything they want at the expense of earners.

No wonder, then, it is galling for earners to be reminded that their only hope of tax relief, which is a substantial budget cut, may be wiped out by the Senate, which traditionally puts back what the house has cut out, plus a little.

The surprise of the year may be forthcoming. U.S. senators may decide it is better politics to outdo the House than to undo it. If the House cuts four billion, the Senate may cut eight billion. Only the spenders would be hurt. The earners would love it!

Motorists likely will be glad when the weather brings the barefoot boy out on the highway. He'll pick up all the tacks and nails.

Tolerance Personified

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Eisenhower Unruffled By Partisan Sniping

What a sensible philosophy Dwight Eisenhower seems to have about criticism directed at him—and there has been plenty of it lately.

What is it that is so petty and of the sniping sort and much of it is ill-disguised partisanship. But Mr. Eisenhower is not ruffled by it. What he said to his press conference this week reveals so much tolerance, good nature and wise understanding that the exact words he used are worth repeating. He said:

"I think I am old enough and philosophical enough to try to separate the personal attacks from those that are honest differences of opinion and conviction. The latter I respect, and the first I ignore. And that is the way I try to conduct my life, because I have just got one thing to do—to do my duty. That is what I am trying to do."

The subject came up because the reporters, many of them as usual interested in the trivial gibes and sneers that come from partisans on Capitol Hill, try to obtain the President's reaction to them on the theory that this is news of more importance to their readers than anything else nowadays.

PARTISAN SQUABBLES are important sometimes but nowadays there would seem to be things far more important than how the President likes the scolding he got because his chauffeur exceeded the speed limit or whether a helicopter procured to move the President quickly from the White House to an airport might also be used once in a while to transport him to a golf course.

One would think that some of the critics believe the American people begrudge the President an opportunity to maintain his health by regular exercise.

But aside from the efforts to provoke party fights and rifts in his administration, the questions at the press conferences do reflect to no small extent the Stevenson-Truman viewpoint about the administration.

There is no reason why this shouldn't be reflected in the press conferences but it seems passing strange that some of the affirmative or more positive developments in the world scene get little or no attention at all.

Thus, just a little less than six months have gone by since the whole world was fearful that the military action taken by the British and the French at Suez would lead to a more serious conflagration. Today the Suez Canal is open and there is no war.

THE ISSUES have by no means been resolved but they are being tackled by negotiation and through the inexorable moral force that must be applied if a world war is to be prevented.

There is peace today. American boys are not being drafted for battle. Prices aren't being controlled and materials are not being allocated or wages frozen.

The national economy is moving along and the American people, while not entirely relieved of their worries in the international situation, are not on the verge of having their personal and business affairs disrupted.

It is a cause for congratulation, in which the British and French people can share. For they also have been saved the horrors of a big war. True enough Nasser hasn't yielded but there is reason to believe that he is far from certain himself that he is the victor, as so many news articles describe him to be.

Time and patience can bring a peaceful result in the Middle East. It is the Soviet government's turn to worry, as it writes more and more notes complaining about the overseas bases of the Western powers.

This is the broad picture of world affairs—and by no means an unimportant one—but the President's press conference this week didn't reveal a single question about the state of affairs ushered in by the reopening of the Suez Canal. Maybe peace isn't interesting and only friction makes news.

The American people, however, are interested in what their President has been able to do to keep them out of a war.

They are disposed to regard the carping critics in Washington as a petulant lot of politicians who have not yet learned that the 1958 elections are going to be fought on the issue of whether the country should go on being governed by a divided government.

HAS THE CONGRESS, now in control of the Democratic party, been more interested in sabotaging programs of the administration than in the public welfare?

What vital pieces of legislation have been blocked? That's news, too.

These are the questions of the day and anyone who studies maneuvers on Capitol Hill can see plainly the tragic story of partisanship being unfolded there every day.

Criticism of Mr. Eisenhower or of any president is logical and desirable but when it is filled with personal innuendoes and efforts designed to give the impression that the president either lacks integrity or fidelity to his job, it goes too far.

That is why Mr. Eisenhower's own temperate reaction to all this is a salutary example of self-restraint and tolerance.

Clothes And The Man

By TRUMAN TWILL

The people who make men's and boys' clothing are off on a big advertising campaign to spruce up American males.

Their idea is sound—that a human being owes it to himself to dress as if he respected himself because the chances are he will try to live up to his clothes.

That far we can go with the people who make men's and boys' clothing, but beyond that we get lost. Clothes may make the man or the boy, but men and boys also make the clothes.

They turned a certain kind of leather jacket and a certain type of pants named after Levi Strauss into the uniform of juvenile delinquency.

They converted the light-colored hat with a snap brim into the headpiece of gangsterism.

They made the ultra-respectable gray flannel suit the uniform of down-and-out degeneracy, although the cap now is making a comeback.

This is why we get lost when we try to think beyond the point where men and boys might be converted some day to a nationwide standard of neatness.

Some of us, of mature years, were dressed in Lord Fauntleroy suits and Buster Brown suits when we were boys.

Theoretically, we should have acted the part of little Lord Fauntleroy and little Buster Browns. But do you know what we did?

We worked overtime to prove that we were little mugs, able to live down our clothing—and when we broke loose from our mothers' apron strings we dress like bums.

Today when we can break away from whatever standard of dress is required by our jobs, we cultivate gaminism—letting our whiskers grow and letting the gravy fall where it will.

What it adds up to is that anything which begins to seem like something that is mandatory sets up rebellion. It becomes a target of ridicule and criticism.

When enough men began to wear blue-serve suits, that was the kiss of death for blue-serve suits. Now that males have exploited all the possibilities of horse-blanket sports coats, there is beginning to be a reaction from that particular badge of conformity.

What constitutes being really well dressed? Who can say? The urge to dress like the crowd is in endless conflict with the counter-urge to be different from the crowd.

When a male puts on the uniform of his country and thereby becomes indistinguishable from millions of others turned out in the same respectable garb, he can hardly wait to get out of uniform so he can assert his individuality.

But when he asserts his individuality, he gives fits to the monitors of good taste in clothing.

We do not know the answer, and we suspect the people who make men's and boys' clothing do not know it, either.

Changes in the tin and lead content can be used to date illegible ancient Greek coins within 25 years.

Hitched To A Star

Security Sacrificed To Fight Reds

By DAVID BARNETT

Robert Morris, chief counsel for the Senate internal security subcommittee, looks like an outsize Irish Puck and has an uncommon lack of interest in economic security.

Last year, he resigned as a New York municipal court judge (tenure: indefinite; salary, $13,617) in a bitterly controversial field.

He rarely has enough money in his pockets. He often has to write checks to pay Washington cab drivers.

The 42-year-old Morris for most of the past 15 years has concentrated on smashing what he calls the "Communist underground" in the United States.

This activity and his approach to it has now put him in the middle of the biggest international storm of his career. As a result of public release of some of the subcommittee's hearings, Mr. Morris has been accused, in effect, of hounding Canadian Ambassador E. Herbert Norman to suicide. He has been accused of being concerned only with generating publicity.

Mr. Morris, a New Yorker of English-Irish stock, directs the Senate investigation of all phases of Soviet and Communist operations in the United States.

IN HIS VIEW, these investigations are not designed to "get" any individual. He said, in an interview:

"We don't investigate an individual Communist. It is not a crime to be a Communist. Nobody is accused in our hearings of a crime. Nobody is a defendant. We are just trying to find out the facts."

Congressional committees, he contended, "with their power of subpoena and their ability to publish their facts, have undertaken to smash the power of the Communist underground—not by putting people in jail but by simple exposure."

"The Federal Bureau of Investigation can know who the subversives are but they usually are powerless to do anything more than watch them perform. The FBI cannot expose or prosecute and this fact is the crux of the issue."

"The congressional committee is the one institution which can bring forth the underlying facts by the elemental procedure of arriving at the truth by question and answer."

Mr. Morris argues that one of the reasons there are relatively fewer Communists in the United States than in other democratic countries is the power of the investigating committees which is almost unique in the U.S.

THE COMMUNISTS, he contends, hesitate to do many things in this country because they know they would "likely be brought up before the committee."

Mr. Morris says the committee is only after the facts—facts that can guide it in advocating legislation to deal with subversives.

Mr. Morris got his first taste of Communist intrigue shortly after graduation from Fordham law school in 1939. He was handling antitrust cases for a large law firm, an occupation he found "deadly," when he was recommended as a "bright young lawyer" to a New York state legislative committee.

The committee made the Rapp-Coudert investigation of communism in the schools and colleges of the New York area and Mr. Morris was its assistant counsel.

In April, 1941, Mr. Morris tried to get into the Navy.

"They wouldn't take me," he related, "because something was wrong with my color perception—I couldn't see red."

By July of that year, the Navy decided they could use Mr. Morris. He was given a waiver on the eye defect and assigned to counter-intelligence. He became officer-in-charge of the unit for the Third Naval District.

During 1944 and 1945, he was officer-in-charge, advance section, psychological warfare section, at the headquarters of Adm. Chester Nimitz. He holds the rank of commander in the Naval Reserve.

HE FIRST CAME to the Senate internal security subcommittee as a special counsel in 1951. He was chief counsel in 1953, when he resigned to become judge of the New York Municipal Court.

In 1956, with seven years of his term still to run, Mr. Morris resigned to come back to the committee.

"Some of my friends think I should have clung to the security of the bench with its higher income and tenure in office because of my family. I have three boys—if Communist infiltration keeps on, what security will they have when they are 21?"

He says he left the bench because he could not stand by and watch from the seclusion of the courtroom the deterioration of the American heritage, without doing something about it.

Mr. Morris, his three children and his wife, Joan, live in an old house in the Capitol Hill section of Washington. The house, like his office, is a place of jingling telephones.

A deceptively youthful looking man with blue eyes, pink and chubby cheeks and a crew hair style that appears always to need cutting, Mr. Morris can't resist answering a ringing phone.

IN DEFERENCE to his wife, the household now has a rule that calls after midnight will not be answered.

"Sometimes," Mr. Morris says, "we change the deadline to 1 o'clock."

Almost all the calls have to do with the committee. Besides long-distance calls charged directly to the committee, the monthly bill to the Morris household runs to $75. To charges that he has taken the committee job to build himself up for a fling in politics, Mr. Morris answers:

"I have no plans of that nature. In fact, I have no plans except to continue my job with the committee."

Ark In Deep Freeze

By SOLOMON STECKOLL

ANKARA, jargon of Toledo, cited as evidence that Mount Ararat was covered by the flood layers of sea shells at different levels.

A FRENCH EXPLORER, Fernand Navarra who is accompanying the present expedition found "something buried" in a glacier 14,000 feet up the mountain.

He reported that the glacier fills a volcanic cleft on the northwest slopes of Ararat.

Tests showed that the piece of wood he chopped off this structure was over 5,000 years old, strengthening the belief that this is the actual ark which Noah built.

Onetime British ambassador to Washington, James Bryce, who climbed Ararat in 1876, wrote that he found a block of wood at 14,000 feet. He suggested it might be a piece of Noah's ark. The wood chopped off a larger piece by Navarra was given the "Carbon-14" test which determines the age of matter.

DR. NECATI DOLUNAY, director of the Turkish Department of Antiquities will accompany the Sykes expedition.

He said that the search for Noah's Ark "has become a challenge."

He added that the recent discovery by Mr. Navarra "was most important." If necessary, troops will be used to remove the thick ice walls surrounding what is believed to be the ark, he indicated.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Perfect Screen Story

With Hollywood and TV going in heavily for westerns, Cinderella stories, and jackpot programs, it would seem possible to merge all these elements in one stirring screen story. We don't see why not and are at work on such an offering. Synopsis:

1. Story opens in a hideout occupied by a handsome Jesse James type and two stepbrothers. The stepbrothers are a pair of meanies who have a wonderful time as outlaws but never let Jesse come along. They make him stay home and mind the store while they go to all the high-class train robberies, etc.

2. The stepbrothers are about to leave on another of their many big-time holdups, all decked out in the finest Hollywood costumes, replete with six-shooters. Jesse begs to go along. They order him to stay in the shack and slave away at dusting off alibis, repairing rifles, etc.

3. Jesse is in despair when a fairy godmother appears and asks what's wrong.

JESSE SOBS that his stepbrothers are off on their ponies shooting things up again and have left him behind to do the dirty work of just behaving himself.

Jesse—I wish I could go to the big train robbery they are attending tonight. I never have any fun.

Fairy Godmother—Have you a pumpkin? Jesse (weeping)—Don't rub it in by asking me to bake a pie!

4. The godmother explains the situation. Jesse says he has no pumpkin. The godmother replies, "I know where you can get a melon." He asks where. She whips out a magic wand. Instantly he is on a TV show against people like Charlie Van Doren. He wins and gets the biggest melon in TV history.

5. The godmother changes the melon into an Arabian horse, one year's supply of black masks and a gun autographed by Hugh O'Brien.

6. "How about white mice?" asks the godmother. He is fresh out of mice but says he has a stepmother who is a rat. The godmother transforms the rat into four horses and a stagecoach in which a beautiful schoolma'am is riding across the desert.

7. Jessie asks, "Why the stagecoach and the schoolma'am?" The godmother replies, "On your ride to join your wicked stepbrothers in the great train robbery routine the old scene where you fall in love with the schoolma'am is always good."

THE REST IS OBVIOUS. Jesse goes to the wonderful stickup, makes a bigger hit than his stepbrothers and gets home safely.

It turns out that the sheriff has found a shoe dropped in the flight from the robbery. He laughs heartily, the boot was dropped by one of his stepbrothers. (Moral: With a fairy godmother you can have all the luck.)

ANNOUNCEMENT that the American people consume 12 billion aspirin tablets per year continues to intrigue us... Does this include those taken the week before and after the April income tax date?

Wouldn't the figure rise far above 12 billion headache pills if the statisticians counted those taken by Dave Beck, the Democratic National Committee, people who try to read subway maps and folks who strive to break in arguments with bus drivers?

AMERICA is a pill-taking nation. You could almost switch the old anthem lines to read, "I love thy rocks and PILLS" instead of rocks and hills.

A noise rising above all others from coast to coast is that of people shaking bottles to get tablets out of them.

Americans once based hopes on life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, but today aspirin is on the list.

Headache pills are in such demand they are thrown instead of rice at weddings and considered a household necessity all through the happy couple's life, especially when the grocery bills are totalled up.

There are people who take headache pills this season for next season's troubles... What we want to know is who counted those 12 billion pills and how many million they consumed each day as they finished checking.

Damascus Pre-School Clinic Set

DAMASCUS — A pre-school clinic for next year's kindergarten children will be held at Goshen Union High School Tuesday, April 1, from 9 to 11 a.m.

Children must be five years of age before Sept. 1 to be eligible. The Goshen Union Mothers Club will provide assistants from the High School, for the doctor and nurses.

Report cards will be distributed at Goshen Union School next week. Sewing and comfort knotting was the hand work when the Rebecca Coleman Missionary Circle of the First Friends Church was entertained by Mrs. Robert Bell Tuesday evening.

The comfort will be given to Rev. and Mrs. Donald Shaver of West Mansfield.

Rev. Shaver is pastor of the Friends Extension Church there. The Rebecca Coleman Circle and the Friendly Missionary Circle are sponsoring a Mother Daughter banquet to be held at Heck's Restaurant in Columbiana June 4, for the ladies of the Friends Church.

Mrs. Chester Stanley explained the editing and mailing of the church paper, "The Oriental News" and showed pictures of Mission work in India.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Clifford Korr.

Mrs. William Atchison and Mrs. Kenneth Phillips will be hostesses to the group May 14, with the place to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Stanley have returned from a two month visit in California.

Enroute to California they visited Lincoln Land in New Salem, Ill.; Grand Canyon, the Petrified Forest and spent a weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Richard Chambers and family in Wheaton, Ill.

Returning home, they visited Colorado Springs, Denver, Hoover Dam, his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stanley and family in Boulder, Colorado and spent a week with Prof. and Mrs. Chambers and family in Wheaton.

While in California they were at Los Angeles and from there spent a day in Hollywood and attended the Hollywood Flower show, the Pacific Home for the retired, Arcadia, Pomona, Knotts Berry Farm, Banna Park, Disney Land, Laguna Beach, Santa Monica, Beverly Hills, Palm Springs and the India Date Festival and many other interesting places.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steer entertained the Friendship Class of the Friends Church at their home on Tuesday evening.

Games were enjoyed and a short business session was held. Lunch was served by the hostess with approximately 22 in attendance.

Steer is the teacher of the class. The next meeting will be held May 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffith.

JESUS LOVED THEM

By PATRICK and GARRISON

CAIAPHAS

"Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people."

—John XVIII:14

This answer, which the high priest, Caiaphas gave Nicodemus, when the latter sought to defend Jesus, was the keynote of the prosecution throughout.

"What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation."

The personal animosity, the greed, the hypocrisy which hid behind this noble motive is apparent only when we study the character and activities of Caiaphas.

In the first place, most of the money changers and merchants Jesus had driven out of the temple had operated their bazaars not only with the high priest's suffrage, but were in fact owned by the sons of Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas.

Everything that Jesus said and did during His ministry was a blow at both their prestige and their chattels.

Caiaphas was of the sect of Sadducees, who denied that any moral law was of divine authority, save that which had been written. Moreover, they rejected the belief of resurrection after death, and of reward or punishment once a man had died.

Curiously enough, Scripture does not record that Jesus assailed the doctrine and conduct of the Sadducees as often and as bitterly as He did those of the Pharisees. When Jesus was brought before Caiaphas, the high priest judged Him according to the written law.

"I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God?"

And Jesus, who had remained silent up to this point, answered: "Thou hast said; nevertheless I say unto you, hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven."

Upon hearing this, Caiaphas ripped his clothes (a traditional act), saying: "He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses?"

Since the ecclesiastical court had no power to pronounce a death sentence, they brought Jesus before Pilate, who did.

Cincinnati Highway Plans Are Revealed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Highways plans to build a super highway that will bound Cincinnati on three sides, State Highway Chief Charles M. Noble announced today.

He said he told the plan to a group of Clermont County officials that met with him here Wednesday afternoon.

The route would begin on U.S. 50 just west of Kilby Road. From there it would make a huge semi-circle around Cincinnati's west, north, and east sides. The north portion of the road would reach the Hamilton-Butler County line and the west section would swing into Clermont County, joining U. S. 52.

The route, being studied by consulting engineers, would relieve downtown Cincinnati of through highway traffic, improve travel between eastern and western Hamilton County and distribute traffic for the Cincinnati Expressway System, Noble said.

Tin is malleable. It can be rolled, pressed and hammered into extremely fine sheets.

Wolfson, Romney
Hold Second Meeting

DETROIT (AP)—The second Detroit meeting between financier Louis E. Wolfson and American Motors President George Romney shaped up much like the first with both men publicly declaring confidence in AMC's future.

At a joint press conference Thursday Romney predicted American Motors would be operating "in the black" by at least early 1958 while Wolfson described himself as "enthused, impressed and very much satisfied."

Wolfson, largest individual stockholder in American Motors, spent the day looking over prototypes of 1958 American Motors automobile and appliance models.

American Motors has not made a profit since its formation in 1954 by merger of Nash-Kelvinator Corp. and the Hudson Motor Car Co.

Lawyer Hampered In Trial Of Amish Man

CHICAGO (AP)—"Lack of co-operation" is hampering a Chicago lawyer appointed to defend a member of the Amish sect who refuses to serve in the military or work in a town in lieu of military service.

U. S. District Judge Win G. Knoch, Thursday appointed Douglas Flood to defend Joni L. Petersheim, 22, of Hazleton, Iowa, when the case comes up May 21.

"He wouldn't even talk to me," Flood said. "The judge expects me to show up and I will do the best I can for Petersheim."

Petersheim, a member of the Mennonite Church, after refusing to serve in the armed forces, also declined to work in a suburban Evanston hospital. It is against his religion, he said, to be employed in a city or town.

Flood said he does not know where Petersheim is. Petersheim did not come to Flood's office to see him Thursday as the lawyer requested.

"But I am going to study his religion and try to find why he refuses to serve so I can best serve him," Flood added.

UCT Committees Appointed; Easter Egg Hunt Planned

Members of Salem Council, United Commercial Travelers of America, met in regular session Wednesday evening with Senior Counselor Ray J. Greenisen presiding. Retiring counselor Louis C. Moushey presented a merit award to past counselor, Joseph McKibbin for his work in the council the past year.

Greenisen appointed the following committees to serve for the ensuing year: Youth, Rex Hundermarck, and Aubrey Cain, co-chairmen, John E. Sweet and Willis B. Seymour.

Social, Louis C. Moushey, chairman, Hundermarck, and William Schaeffer; membership, William M. Schaeffer, chairman, Charles W. Kniseley and Robert W. Kaminsky.

Program and lunch, Charles R. Vincent, chairman, William Mackey, William Hinchliffe Jr., and Howard Coy; publicity, C. Raymond Reich; safety, McKibbin, chairman, James Johnson, Charles Kniseley and L. D. Beardmore.

The youth committee reported that the annual Easter egg hunt will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 20, in Centennial Park with Willis Seymour in charge. Some 5,000 chocolate eggs will be hidden in the park that morning for all youngsters of the community.

The council named Louis C. Moushey and Robert W. Kaminsky to be council's guests when the UCT international convention meets in Cincinnati in July. This honor is given on the basis of membership work done by the local council during the year.

Kniseley reported on the work of the safety committee. A drive has been started to try to get the State Highway Department to erect a caution light at the intersection of U. S. Route 62 and State Route 165 north of town. That is considered to be a very dangerous intersection and the group feels that some type of light is needed badly.

A telegram was dispatched to Gov. C. William O'Neil asking for this light. A letter has been received from the governor stating that the telegram was referred to the Highway Department; and Mr. Noble of the Highway Department has since assured the UCT group that a survey will be made in the near future and a light will be erected if the survey shows the need.

A lunch was served following the business meeting with William Mackey and his committee in charge. The next council meeting will be held May 8 at the Elks Home.

Senior Citizens Club Has Weekly Meeting

Thirty-seven members of the Salem Senior Citizens Club attended the weekly "drop-in" meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Memorial Building.

Mrs. Bertha Olott, Mrs. Minnie Bush, Mrs. Mary Weirick and Mrs. Julia Umstead were welcomed as new members. Progressive and table games and cards were enjoyed in the gymnasium. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Olga Bruderly, Mrs. Viola Gardner, Miss Mary Caldwell, Mrs. Vera Eschliman, Mrs. Mayme Holmes and Mrs. Mary Leach.

All men and women 60 years of age and over are invited to the weekly meetings. The regular monthly meeting will be held April 24.

Dinner Outing Held By We Dine Club

Mrs. Donald Anderson was a guest when the We Dine Club met for dinner Wednesday evening at Hill's Tea Room in Youngstown and later at the home of Mrs. Arnold Sauerwein of Locust Grove.

Honors in "500" went to Mrs. Richard Stone, Mrs. Cecil Kelly and Mrs. Lewis Brown.

Mrs. Sauerwein displayed many ceramic items which she had hand-painted.

The next meeting will be May 15 at the home of Mrs. Cecil Kelly near Greenford.

Nazarenes To Hear Speaker At Sebring

Miss Ruth Brinkman of South Africa will show slides and speak of her work in Africa at a zone rally in the Sebring Church of the Nazarene at 7:30 tonight.

Announcement of the rally was made at a meeting of the Women's Missionary of the local Church of the Nazarene Wednesday night. It was the first meeting of the new assembly year.

Mrs. John Tullis gave an interesting talk on the last report from the old study book on New Guinea. The new study book will tell of conditions in Japan and Korea.

Salem Camera Club Has Annual Dinner

Members of the Salem Camera Club and their guests enjoyed a dinner meeting Wednesday night at Goshen Union High School.

The occasion marked the club's third anniversary.

Places at the dinner tables were marked with make-believe cameras.

Centering one table was a four-tiered decorated cake topped with three lighted candles and encircled with colored Easter eggs.

The speaker's table was attractive with an arrangement of crocuses, daffodils and forsythia flanked by white tapers. Another table decoration featured an Easter bunny and colored eggs in a basket.

Students of Miss Daisy Stackhouse, home economics teacher at the school, prepared and served the dinner. Miss Stackhouse, a member of the Camera Club, served as hostess to the group.

Russell Hannay, president, welcomed the members and guests, and Norman Eckfeld in behalf of all the members, presented Mr. Hannay a gift in appreciation of his service as president of the club since its organization.

A display of pictures arranged by Miss Stackhouse was viewed, and a color film with sound on the Florida State Fair concluded the program.

Music Club Program Is Enjoyed

A poem, "Resurrection," given by Mrs. Joseph Barnes, opened Wednesday's meeting of the Salem Music Club in the Ruth Smucker House. Mrs. Roy Meyer presided. Mrs. Barnes also gave the report of the April Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Meredith Livingston announced the program which included: Papers by Mrs. Paul Beaver on the mazurka and polonaise. Mrs. Beaver then illustrated both at the piano when she played a mazurka and polonaise by Chopin.

Mrs. Chris Perrott sang "Consider the Lilies" by Scott and "Carmena" by Wilson. She was accompanied by Mrs. Esther Odoran. Two flute duets, "Complain Not" by Charles DeBeriot, "Musetta's Waltz Song" by Puccini and "At the Brook" by Rene de Boisdefre played by Mrs. Alfred Fitch a guest, and Mrs. Marie Fawcett. Mrs. Jay Hunston was piano accompanist.

Mrs. Hunston also accompanied the club in singing the hymn, "O Sacred Heart."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Beaver and Mrs. Nelson Bailey.

The next meeting is April 24 at 2 p.m. in the Ruth Smucker House.

Public Invited To See Religious Picture

The public is invited to attend a showing of "The Great Commandment," a full length feature motion picture, at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Columbiana High School auditorium. The Triple "M" Class of the First Presbyterian Church in Columbiana is sponsoring the film.

Producer of "The Great Commandment" is Rev. James K. Friedrich, D.D., L.H.D., and the director is Irving Pichel, who also directed "Martin Luther" and "The Day of Triumph."

The Triple "M" Class is offering this film in an attempt to provide a different type of religious program for the Easter season. There will be no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken to cover the rental cost of the film.

Model Railroaders Hold 'Swap Night'

The Junior Model Railroad Club held "swap night" at its meeting Saturday night when Harry Harner was a guest.

The meeting was conducted by Fred Naragon. Articles exchanged included switches, cars, liken and flat car loads.

It was announced that a party will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. April 19 in the Country Club in honor of Fred Naragon's birthday anniversary.

Don Keener reported that Harry Tietjen was having difficulty in obtaining railroad movies; and Fred Birkhimer reported that the Senior Club had discussed joining the National Model Railroad Club.

Don Keener's diesel was used when the trains were operated in the dark.

The meeting was closed by Gary Brient and John Stratton.

May Sign Until Monday

Monday will be the final date farmers may sign agreements for conservation reserve, according to Everett A. Fishel, chairman of the Columbiana Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee.

The soil bank program can be for three, five or ten years. "An explanation as to how it would affect your farm can be obtained at the ASC office in Lisbon and if you choose to enter this plan the contract must be written and signed on or before Monday," Fishel said.

In And About Our Schools

The fifth and sixth graders of Fourth Street School were guests at the Junior High band assembly Wednesday.

The program included: "Thunder West March"; "Air and March"; "Silhouette" with Laraine Pardee as clarinet soloist; "Southern Fantasy," featuring a saxophone trio comprised of Karen Greenisen, Fred Stockman, Kathy Cameron; "Drumastics," a drum trio, Ronnie Wright, Fred Kaiser, Walter Plues; "Goofin'"; and "Uncle Sam March."

Phil Greenisen served as announcer. The color guard was comprised of Buzzie Snyder, Patty Kelly, Richard Zeppernick, Sarah Fitch, Sandy Hawkins and Tony Chitea.

Presbyterian Group Hears Missions Talk

Fourteen members of the October Group of the First Presbyterian Church were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Smallwood of E. 6th St.

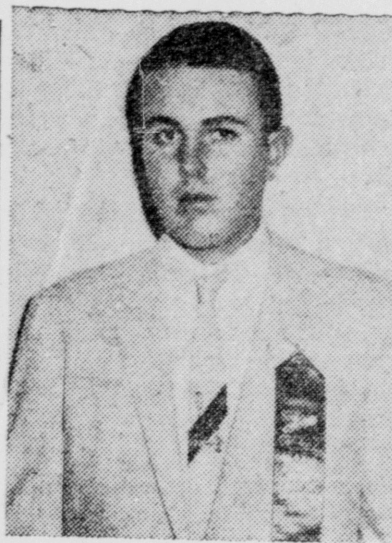

Co-hostess at the session was Mrs. C. N. Raymond. "Our Missions to America" was the theme of the program presented by Mrs. John P. Olloman who based the readings and discussion on the study course, "Missions—U.S.A."

Mrs. George McLaughlin led devotions which were based on the theme, "The Things Which Are Caesar's."

The meeting was opened with a prayer and song, and a silent auction was a feature.

Lunch was served by the hostesses.

The Tuesday, May 14 meeting site will be announced.

Keith Bowman (above) of Lisbon was recently proclaimed county junior corn growing champion at a banquet held at Columbus in honor of Ohio corn growing champions. His yield of 92.23 bushels per acre was the top yield in Columbiana county in the 1956 national selected two-acre DeKalb junior corn growing contest.

Congressmen Rip Army Offer

Brucker Denies Trip
Is 'Free Junket'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Brucker's offer to congressmen of a free Kentucky trip — he says it's "coincidence" the excursion falls on Derby weekend — has stirred some bitter comment in Congress.

"This seductive Army bobble could possibly cost the Army 10 million dollars in reduced appropriations," said Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.), chairman of a House Appropriations subcommittee which handles military money bills.

"The extravagant excursion is arranged for one purpose and one only — to please congressmen," said Rep. Burdick (R-ND).

Their comments came Thursday, a day after first public reports of the trip.

A somewhat ruffled Brucker conceded to newsmen he had made a mistake "in not recognizing the coincidence in timing and place."

Members of the House and Senate Armed Services and Appropriations committees were invited to witness a military demonstration May 3-4 at Ft. Knox, Ky., 30 miles from the race track at Louisville.

May 4 is Derby day. In extending the invitation, Brucker offered free air transport, and free meals and lodging for the duration of the Army show. He added that any congressman desiring to remain over for the horse race would be flown back to Washington May 5, and expressed "regret that I am not in a position to make arrangements for seats at the Derby."

Brucker said Thursday, in the wake of congressional criticism, that the trip "is not a free junket to the Derby at the expense of the taxpayers, but a serious expedition."

He added that the Army show dates were tentatively set last fall as May 2-3 without regard for derby day. He added that he changed them to May 3-4 after Rep. Robison (R-Ky.) mentioned in March that Derby day was May 4. The change wouldn't add "a thin dime" to the Army's costs, he said.

In criticizing Brucker's invitation, Mahon told the House Thursday:

"No doubt the Army considers this good public relations with Congress but it is not."

"And it ought to be obvious to the most naive that it is mighty bad public relations with about 170 million plain Americans, most of whom are clamoring for economy and good management in the government."

Mahon added he was issuing a "public warning" to Brucker to stop that sort of spending.

Burdick added with sarcasm that the Army should "be so parsimonious about the race tickets—they should pay that too."

National Socialist party holds 11 of 40 seats.

Nabulsi was scheduled to take his case to the people today in political speeches in Ramallah and Jenin, both in the part of Palestine taken over by Jordan in the 1948 war with Israel. The strongly anti-Israeli Palestinians of that area are particularly bitter against the West and back Nabulsi's policy of close ties with Syria and Egypt and closer relations with the Soviet Union.

Observers Fear Appeals

Foreign observers feared "appeals to the streets" by the popular ex-Premier might set off serious riots which could threaten the throne.

The announcement of Nabulsi's resignation did not say why Hussein asked him to step down. It was generally known, however, that the 22-year-old monarch disagreed with the Cabinet's pro-Soviet policies, which continued despite public warnings by Hussein against Red penetration.

In trying to form a new Cabinet, Khalidi faced an insurmountable task because of the opposition of Nabulsi's party and its allies.

The National Socialists had announced in advance they would not participate in a new government. Informants said Khalidi told the King late Thursday his efforts had resulted in failure. Khalidi is considered an elder statesman with leanings toward the West.

Funds Cut

5 per cent cut of $2,218,200 from requests but $2,240,615 more than the courts had this year.

All the funds were embodied in an omnibus bill providing new appropriations of $583,799,793, a reduction of $101,850,009, or 15 per cent, from requests and $41,665,364 less than the current year funds.

If the House sustains the committee's recommendations when it considers the bill next week—and it may cut even deeper—it will have boosted to $1,140,000,000 its total cuts to date this year on eight annual money bills.

Biting In Its Criticism

Seldom has the committee been so biting in its criticism as it was concerning the State Department and the information agency, which operates U. S. propaganda programs abroad.

It discovered, it said, "a most amazing and unprecedented situation in that, despite the fact that Congress had made sizable reductions in the 1957 fiscal year budget for the two agencies, they proceed to establish in 1957 over 950 positions more than they had requested in their 1957 budget presentations."

"These agencies now come along and request funds to annualize these positions in fiscal year 1958" and ask for 2,123 new positions.

Service will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the church with Rev. Ralph Johnson officiating. Burial will be in Bethel Cemetery.

Friends may call Saturday and Sunday at the Wilbur Hays residence at RD 1, Salineville.

William E. Hummell

Funeral service for William E. Hummell of RD 2, Coshocton, who died of a heart attack Wednesday at 2:30 a.m. will be held Saturday at the Toland Funeral Home, Wooster Ave., Dover.

A former Leetonia resident, Mr. Hummell had had charge of the boat concessions at Wills Creek Landing, south of Coshocton.

Saudi Arabia Issues Ban On Israeli Shipping

CAIRO (AP) — Saudi Arabia has told nations of East and West that it won't permit Israeli shipping the right to use the Gulf of Aqaba.

The Saudi Arabian League released a statement here Thursday night saying a note had been dispatched to "world governments" setting forth its formal position on Aqaba.

Israel already has a small naval squadron in the Gulf of Aqaba and Red Sea area. It consists of two frigates, several torpedo boats and some landing craft. In addition foreign ships carrying cargo to and from the Israeli port of Eilat are using the gulf.

There was no indication in the note as released here that Saudi Arabia planned any immediate military action against Israelis in the gulf area.

"The main purpose of the Gulf of Aqaba since the advent of Islam was to carry pilgrims to Mecca," the note said. "The Saudi government, as guardian of the places and of security of pilgrimage routes lying within its sovereignty, will not fail to protect this route and won't permit Israel the right to sail through the gulf."

It reiterated the Saudi Arabian stand that under international law the gulf should be considered territorial and not international waters. Any attempt to give the gulf an international character, said the note, would be a threat to Saudi Arabia's territorial security.

Saudi Arabia claims Tiran and Sinafar, islands at the mouth of the gulf. It permitted Egypt to fortify them in 1950 to bar Israeli shipping. In the attack on Egypt last fall Israel broke the Egyptian blockade.

The Israeli press has said that threats to reimpose the blockade are idle unless Egypt wants "full-scale war."

'Yep, It's A Hole,' Army Ordnance Experts Decide

SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (AP) — One fact emerged today amid the debris and confusion at the Oscar Murphy home: there is a 15-foot hole in the back yard.

That's about all that is certain after two days of strenuous digging activity by Army Ordnance crews.

The Army, without ever quite knowing what it was looking for, Thursday called off the search that began Tuesday when the Murphy's 10-year-old son, Pat, found a strange hole two feet deep behind the house.

Shortly before the hole was discovered residents of suburban San Gabriel and surrounding communities had been jarred by a deafening blast, apparently caused by a jet plane breaking the sonic barrier.

While Air Force intelligence officers maintained a knowing, tight-lipped silence, Army demolition experts ripped up the Murphy's patio and clothes line poles. When the two-foot hole had become a pit 7-by-7-by-15 feet and only a broken baby carriage had been unearthed, the digging was halted.

"If there's anything down here, it won't hurt anything if it does explode," said one officer.

The hole is being filled in today. The patio and the clothes line poles are being restored.

TWO AUTOS COLLIDE

Duffy Hearing Is Recessed Until Monday

LISBON — Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp recessed the case of former president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters James M. Duffy till Monday at 9:30 a.m. after hearing testimony Wednesday and Thursday in the case in which Duffy is asking to have the March primaries of the IBOP set aside and another election held because his name was denied a place on the ballot.

Duffy claims that he had worked at the trade one year prior to his nomination by the East Palestine Local 31. The IBOP executive committee refused to place his name on the ballot because their interpretation of Jan. 1 being the start of the year.

Duffy, according to records, started working on Jan. 28, 1956, and was nominated by the Local 31 on Jan. 28, 1957.

Testifying Thursday was Charles Hall, East Palestine, recording secretary of Local 31 of W. S. George Pottery, who had recorded the minutes of the Jan. 28 meeting at which time Duffy's name was nominated from the floor as candidate for president of the IBOP.

The Brotherhood's regular election is slated May 7.

Duffy seeks to have the court disqualify the primary and order another held with his name on the ballot.

tion that U.S. officials said would be difficult to meet.

Morris, in answer to questions by newsmen, said that the subcommittee has received "no request from the State Department asking us to clear anything as a result of this."

He was asked if the subcommittee might seek clearance from the department in any future case regardless of whether it was requested to do so.

"There is no change in committee policy or procedure," he replied.

The subcommittee has taken the position that it was under no obligation to consult with the State Department about publication of testimony it took about Norman at a closed hearing March 12.

However, Chairman Eastland (D-Miss) and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), the senior minority member, have said that "before the testimony which contained references to Ambassador Norman was released, the transcript was cleared for publication by the State Department."

Lincoln White, the State Department press officer, said Thursday that Robert F. Cartwright, the department's deputy security chief, had never approved publication by the subcommittee of any derogatory information about Norman.

Legislature OKs Salary Cut Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio legislators left with Gov. C. William O'Neill today full responsibility for wiping out salary increases granted his official family three months ago.

"The governor has admitted he made a mistake," Rep. Kline L. Roberts (R-Franklin), majority floor leader, told the House Thursday. "The majority party has come to the conclusion that they should support the governor in his reversal."

Roberts spoke in support of a Senate-approved emergency bill to revoke salary increases up to $6,000 a year for most cabinet officers and key appointive state officials.

After beating Democratic attempts to modify the cuts, representatives passed the bill by a vote of 109-23 and adjourned for the weekend.

O'Neill said the pay cuts would take effect when he signs the measure, probably next week. That will return most $16,000 and $18,000 a year salaries to their mid-January level of $10,000 and $12,000.

Uncut by the legislation will be the new highway chief's $30,000 annual pay and $16,000 salaries of three Public Utilities commissioners who formerly got $10,000 each. Salary of the yet to be named mental health director drops from $25,000 to $18,000 a year. It formerly was $12,000.

Starzel Reports AP Service Expansion

NEW YORK (AP) — Associated Press services expanded substantially throughout the world in 1956, Frank J. Starzel, AP general manager, said today in his annual report.

The report was distributed to members of The AP, worldwide newsgathering cooperative, in advance of its annual meeting to be held April 22 in New York. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will be the luncheon speaker.

AP news and pictures are now received in more than 70 countries outside the United States, Starzel said. He noted that in 1956 The AP returned to India and expanded in Brazil, South Viet Nam, Iraq, Aden, Nicaragua and Finland. Service was started last week in South Africa.

"There were substantial increases elsewhere in the number of subscribers to the news service, partly the result of stronger facilities of communications," he added. "Egypt, Italy, Turkey and Scandinavia led the list."

GETS 3 YEARS PROBATION

LISBON — Harold F. Vannmeter, 29, East Liverpool was given three years probation this morning by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp for the burglary of the Penn Ave. Methodist Church in East Liverpool in October, 1956.

Vannmeter, indicted by the January Grand Jury, pleaded guilty to the charge at arraignment day and asked for probation.

Richard Rose, chief probation officer, made an investigation of Vannmeter's past.

You Think You Have Income Tax Troubles? -- Read This

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — You think you have income tax troubles? A would-be taxpayer walked into a federal building, got off the elevator at the wrong floor, saw a lot of men filing out forms, was handed some himself, filled them out and turned them in.

"I still don't see what this has to do with filling out my tax return," he said. It didn't. He had just taken, and passed, an examination for building guard.

That comes from the Internal Revenue Service in Washington. Every year about this time — income tax deadline is April 15 — it receives from its collectors around the country stories of the problems they — and the taxpayers — have.

This is the time when people, along with their returns, send in old shirts and pants, saying: "You've taken everything else, you may as well have this too."

The revenue service reports these events too:

One woman pulled a switch on the shirts-and-pants gifts. She sent in a lock of her hair with a brief note: "I've just been scalped."

One old lady paid her tax and waited. The cashier said: "That's all." She said: "Where are my green stamps?" He was too stunned to answer. But she said: "Everybody gives green stamps nowadays. It's about time you people woke up."

Another woman tried to deduct as a medical expense the price she paid for a Chihuahua puppy. A neighbor had told her having such a dog around might cure her asthma. And, after the dog arrived, her asthma improved.

One man, asked by the revenue service to verify a big dental expense, sent back his false teeth with a note:

"After buying these plates I gained so much weight the doctor told me to go on a diet. By sending them to you as proof of my claim, I hope to solve two problems at the same time."

The revenue service also reports there have been cases where people tried to cash their W-2 withholding receipt, or visited the collectors' offices to borrow money, cash checks, or get help making out their wills.

One taxpayer, receiving a bill for additional tax, wrote back: "I got married today — leaving for honeymoon — gone one week — hope you can wait — I can't."

Another taxpayer enclosed his return and his tax with a note which said:

"I'm sorry I can't give you my address. I'm living in a box car. And they move the damned thing every morning."

P.S. He didn't know it, since he couldn't be reached, but he had overpaid his tax and was due a refund.

Teamsters Strike Closes Dayton Papers

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A Teamsters Union strike against Dayton Newspapers, Inc., kept both the morning Journal-Herald and the afternoon Dayton News from publishing today.

Dwight Young, editor and publisher of the Journal-Herald, said his newspaper failed to publish today's edition when the majority of the paper's mechanical workers refused to cross Teamsters' picket lines.

And Carl Roberts, city editor of the News, said the News would make no attempt to publish today. The News also failed to publish Thursday. Roberts reported that telegrams had been sent to union employees of the two newspapers' mechanical departments saying they had been laid off until further notice "for lack of work."

Local 176 of the Teamsters struck the newspaper company over a wage dispute involving 25 janitors and building maintenance workers.

Despite orders from their union officials, pressmen and mailers refused to cross picket lines to put out Thursday's News.

Thursday night, 18 of 80 Journal-Herald pressmen showed up for work, but none of the paper's stereotypers or mailers crossed the lines.

Editorial staffs of both papers are still reporting for work. Young said the Journal-Herald will continue to supply local news to radio and television stations in the area.

John E. Breibenbach, president of the Central Labor Union (CLU) criticized the strike, saying the Teamsters had not sought CLU sanction for the strike, a standard procedure for all strikes in the area.

The Teamsters struck over the issue of raising the pay of the 25 janitors and maintenance men. The union turned down a company offer of 30 to 50 cents an hour wage increases. It demanded instead increases of from 50 to 70 cents an hour retroactive to Feb. 12, when the old contract expired. Janitors and maintenance men receive a minimum of $1 an hour.

Fate Of Aircraft Carrier Uncertain

NEW YORK (AP) — The aircraft carrier Enterprise was towed into Brooklyn Navy Yard Thursday with its fate still uncertain.

The big carrier, which the Japanese claimed to have sunk six times during World War II, was ordered deactivated last fall and stripped down for scrap.

The Secretary of the Navy recently ordered scrapping plans held in abeyance pending fundraising efforts by a private organization.

Built in 1936, the Enterprise officially was credited with shooting down 911 Japanese planes, sinking 71 ships, and damaging 192 others. It recently had been at the Bayonne, N. J., Naval Supply Depot.

Naval Air Reserve Training School Set

The U. S. Naval Air Station in Akron announces that an 85-day school for recruits will be conducted this summer at Grosse Ile, Mich.

Young men, between the ages of 17 and 18½, who enlist in the naval air reserve now and can pass the qualifying tests will be eligible.

Members of the program will continue to drill one weekend a month but not while in the 85-day school. Once they have completed high school they will go on active duty for two years.

Fairfield Music Club Sets Dance

FAIRFIELD—The Fairfield Music Boosters will sponsor a round and square record hop Saturday evening. The new record player given the school by the Music Boosters will be used. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller of Middleton have returned from a seven-week vacation during which they drove to California where they visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gump of Alhambra, brother of Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Stewart of Burbank, Calif. They visited Mrs. Mary Hickman of Amarillo, Tex. while out west.

Other points of interest were Los Vegas, Hoover Dam, Grand Canyon in Arizona. They were fortunate in escaping the recent storms in Texas. They covered 8,000 miles on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lanterman of Humtown entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cullar and son Duane of Washingtonville Saturday evening.

'Get Down to Specifics,' GOP Leaders Told

OMAHA (AP)—Midwest Republican leaders were told today to "get down to specifics" in the 1958 congressional campaign.

"We don't want fancy words or fanciful hopes; we want election victories," National GOP Chairman Meade Alcorn said in a prepared speech opening the first general session of a planning conference.

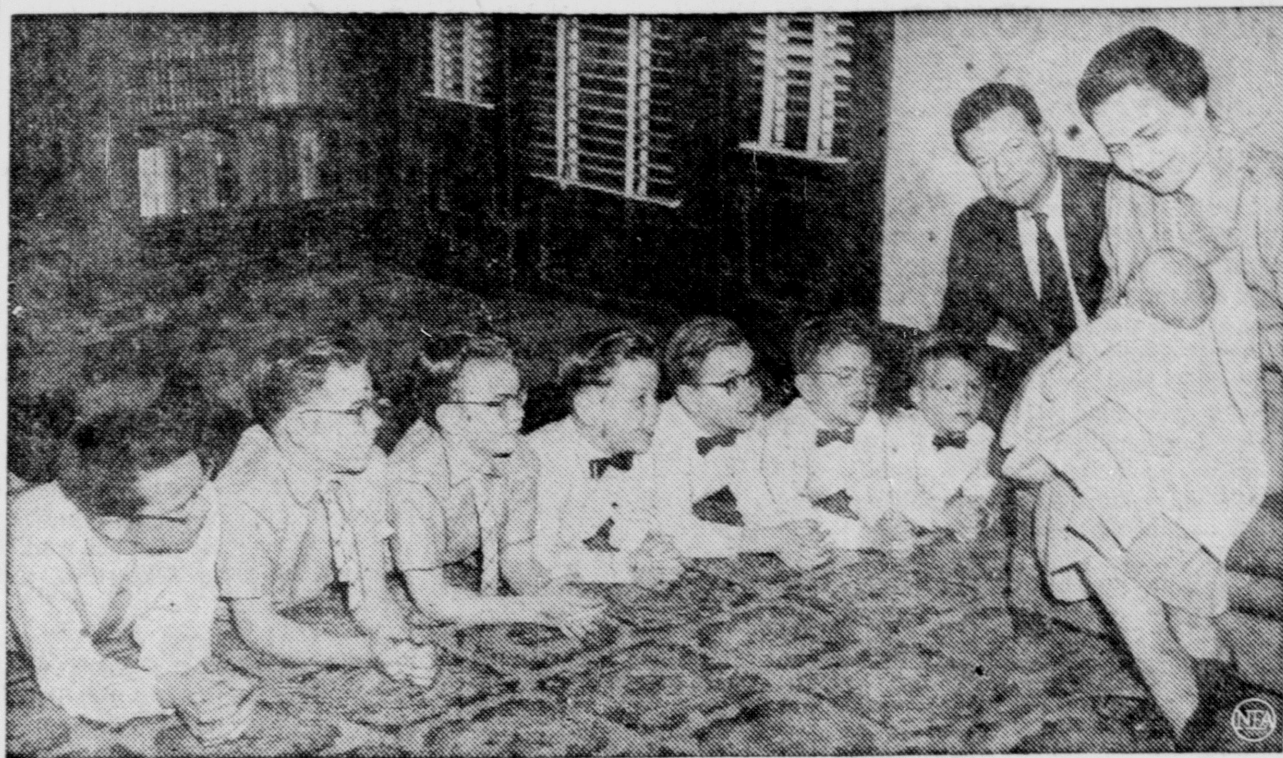

Represented are Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Colorado, states in which the GOP lost three congressional seats and one senatorship last year.

Alcorn Thursday in a news conference said the "most intensive campaign in our party's history" already is under way, at the earliest date either major party ever has started a campaign.

He said he isn't afraid of the size of the administration budget so long as it represents essential services.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—George Hodges, Ashtabula, Ohio, was crushed to death Thursday between the lake freighter "Greater Milletto" and a grain elevator dock. He fell from a ladder on the ship's side.

AT LAST — A GIRL — What a childhood awaits Mary Pat Ryan. She's already the pet of the Harry Ryan household in Cleveland, Ohio, and she has just arrived home from the hospital with her mother. Her seven brothers range in age from three to 13.

Alan Freed Discovers Bach-Und-Roll

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Johann Sebastian Bach wrote rock-and-roll. Maybe in those days they called it Bach-und-roll. Anyhow, it is Alan Freed who discovered old Johann's secret vice.

Freed is the man who made up the phrase, "rock-and-roll," and has done more than anybody to popularize it, man. His rock-and-roll shows at several New York an encounter she'd had with Richard Rodgers. He heard her sing in a night club and, afterwards, they were introduced. He asked her to audition for a new show he was working on. She did.

"You're a beautiful girl with a beautiful voice," Rodgers told her, "but they couldn't hear you beyond the third row."

Since then, Mindy's been working with her vocal coach — he's also her accompanist — on increasing her power. It's paid off. She's going to sing the Mary Martin part in the City Center revival of "South Pacific."

throughout the United States and Hawaii.

Robert L. Harrington, Van Wert attorney, is the president of the new Ohio group. He attended the academy as a member of the class of 1938. The vice president and secretary-treasurer is Brig. Gen. Samuel G. Conley, vice president of Ohio Northern University, a 1924 West Point graduate.

Westville

Mr. and Mrs. William Stockberger and children of Westville Lake moved to their home they bought in Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knoch and son of Salem have moved into the home vacated by Stockberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Stanley have returned home after spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woolfe of Sebring were Sunday dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morris and daughters of Westville Lake were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morris at Everett, Pa., and brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Morris at Bedford, Pa.

Barbara Stanley, a student at Ohio State University, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kasso visited his father, James Kasso of Salem Sunday evening.

The Junior Christian Endeavor held its meeting at the church. The evening was spent in making cribs out of oats boxes and playing games. Lunch was served.

Mrs. Herman Oswalt of Elliot Road is improving at the Salem Clinic after an operation.

Mrs. Floyd Stanley of Akron, Mrs. Jerd Oesch of Berlin Center, Mrs. Harry Crawford of RD 1, Beloit, Russell Oesch and daughter Russell and Susan Stanley of Damascus called on Mrs. Charlotte Oesch Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Gednetz entertained members of the 57 Club Thursday evening at her home at Westville Lake. Awards of 500 went to Mrs. William Stockberger and Mrs. George Grove.

Traveling prize was won by Mrs. Stockberger and Mrs. Grove was presented a gift from her secret sister. The Easter theme was carried out in refreshments.

theaters drew thousands of people and dollars). Coming up are three Freed rock-and-roll shows over ABC-TV. He's a big wheel New York disc jockey and the unofficial king of the rock-and-roll set.

Yet there's a skeleton in his closet. He likes classical music, especially Bach and Wagner's orchestral works. And, seated one day at his hi-fi, he made a tremendous discovery.

"I WAS PLAYING a Bach or organ work," he says. "And it had a rock-and-roll riff in it. Real cool stuff."

He's found a few others since. Nothing in Wagner, though. He must have been an utter square.

Freed, a Salem, Ohio, native, who came up through the radio ladder, thinks rock-and-roll is here to stay. He would, of course, but he sounds very positive about it.

"Gradually," he says, "it will probably melt into the regular music stream, but it definitely won't disappear. In our lifetime, I doubt if we'll ever hear a Hit Parade that doesn't have three or four rock-and-roll songs in the top 10."

SOME TWO YEARS AGO, Min-day Carson told me a story about

Send Letter Of Protest To Russia

Charging that Soviet officials "may perhaps be found fighters actually against God," a letter of protest from officials of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, legal governing body of Jehovah's Witnesses, has been sent to Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin of the U.S.S.R.

William Hampson, presiding minister of the Salem congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, said the letter called attention to the 7,000 Jehovah's Witnesses known to be in slave camps in the Soviet Union and, requesting their release, proposed that a delegation be permitted to proceed from the Society's headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y., to Moscow to fully acquaint the Soviet government with the true aims and purposes of Jehovah's Witnesses.

A FEAST OF CABBAGE—Here's a challenge for cabbage growers this season from the Matanuska valley of Alaska. This cabbage, which weighs 41 pounds, is a product of area. Although grown last year, it's not unusual to see such large ones.

A DEADLY POD—Looking like four peas in a pod, the Zuni, new rocket-propelled missile of the United States Navy, rests in a launching device at China Lake, Calif. This all-purpose armament can be used against aircraft or ground targets.

HANNIBAL'S GREAT TIME—Cocking his ears, Hannibal, piebald drum horse of the Royal Horse Guards, enjoys a parade rehearsal in London. Horse Guards are tuning up for future Franco-British military show.

QUITE A KILL—It took five shots to bring down that 160-pound cougar near Coalville, Ut. Happy hunters are (from left) Lew Dillree, John Adkins and Frank Warburton. Skin will become gloves and feet and ears drew $25 bounty.

LOFTY LOOKOUT—One of three such "old timers" stands watch in stately grandeur over the tumbling Virgin river deep in the Zion National Park in Utah.

VACATION TOPSY-TURVY

ANYONE LOOKING FOR a vacation spot that's "real crazy" might go to New Brunswick, Canada, where he'll find a waterfall that operates in reverse, a tidal wave that runs upriver and a magnetized hill that drags cars to the top. Taking these "mixed-up spots" in order, the waterfall is near city of Saint John. It tumbles through a gorge, but half the time, on a reverse cycle, water runs uphill, over the falls and back into the river. The tidal wave is found near town of Moncton, on Bay of Fundy. Every few hours a wall of water called the Tidal Bore surges up the Petitcodiac river. The wave unrolls like a carpet in a sudden reversal of river's course. Just outside Moncton is Magnetic Hill. A motorist drives his car down the incline, stops it, turns off motor and releases the brakes. The car will then back up this hill. Oh, yes, that's not all. Bay of Fundy has carved out huge sandstone columns that resemble flower pots and there's a highway near here that runs over the ocean floor, but, naturally, it's used only at ebb tide.

This is Magnetic Hill. The sign tells motorists about this natural phenomenon.

The rocks at Hopewell cape, at mouth of Petitcodiac river, resemble flower pots.

CIVILIAN HONORS—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, U. S. Army chief of staff, has just received an honorary degree of doctor of laws at Seoul National university. He's currently on a fact-finding tour of far east.

Questions and Answers

Any drug or medicine which is strong enough to have an effect on the body can produce harm if it is taken in too large quantities.

Q — Will digitalis leave any ill effect if taken regularly over a long period? Will an overdose of digitalis within 48 hours leave any permanent or temporary damage?

A — Digitalis is probably the most important drug used in various forms of heart disease. If the dosage is proper for the patient involved and the purposes intended, it can be, and frequently is, taken regularly over a long period without producing any ill effects. It is possible to give an overdose of digitalis within 48 hours, or any other period of time. This may produce excessive slowing of the heart or other heart changes which can cause serious effects. Assuming that a person who has taken an overdose of digitalis recovers from the temporary effects and that the overdose is not continued, there should not be any permanent damage to the heart.

Q — Would you please say something about the treatment for cancer of the abdomen, which I have heard about recently. This is the use of iodine pills which cause vomiting.

A — A cancer, no matter where located, should never be treated by pills containing iodine or of any other kind. This is an extremely dangerous practice, since it may prevent the patient with early cancer from getting successful treatment by surgery, X-rays or radium, which are the only methods of treating cancer at the present time.

Q — There have been a number of cases of pneumonitis in our neighborhood this past winter. Would you please explain this and whether it is a form of pneumonia?

A — The term pneumonitis is rather a vague one which is sometimes applied to an inflammation of the lungs distinct from lobar pneumonia and other lung disorders. Probably most cases of pneumonitis are now labeled virus pneumonia. This, as the name implies, is an involvement of the lung resulting from the invasion of a virus or viruses. The vast majority afflicted in this manner recover completely, but the weakening effects frequently hang on for weeks or months after the acute illness has passed.

Q — Please explain what causes lack of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. What could it lead to if not corrected? Recently my son in service was found to be lacking in this type of acid.

A — Absence of hydrochloric acid in the stomach secretion is a symptom and not a disease. If found, it should not simply be corrected by giving dilute hydrochloric acid by mouth, but the cause should be investigated. The two most important reasons for lack of hydrochloric acid in the stomach are cancer and pernicious anemia.

Q — Please tell me if there is any connection between multiple sclerosis and muscular dystrophy. Can members of one family have both?

A — So far as I know there is no connection whatsoever between these two diseases, although the cause or causes of both of them are poorly understood. It is remotely possible for members of one family to be afflicted with both diseases, but fortunately such a case is rare.

Attorneys Appointed For Accused Slayer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Criminal Court Judge Carson Hoy Thursday instructed two court-appointed attorneys to prepare their defense of Lemuel (Son) Trotter on a first degree murder charge "just as Trotter wants it tried and proceed as he asks."

Attorneys Harry A. Abrams and Joseph H. Fulton told the judge Trotter has declined to talk with them and that "he tells us he will tell his story in the courtroom."

Trotter, 29, is charged in the slaying of detective Walter Hart in a cafe here Sept. 19, 1955. Hart was killed as he attempted to prevent a holdup in the cafe.

Trotter was a fugitive until his arrest several weeks ago in Selma, Ala.

Two other men also were charged with having participated in the slaying. Robert V. Jackson, 40, already has been sentenced to death and William Barnett, 35, has been declared insane.

Turnpike Netted $1,187,324 In March

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike took in $1,187,324 during March, up about $280,000 from the same month last year.

In its monthly report issued today, the Turnpike Commission said income before debt service was $840,731, compared to $596,940 in March, 1956.

Interest on the turnpike bonds costs about $880,000 a month, but March is a slow month for turnpike travel. On April 1, Commission Chairman James W. Shocknessy said increased truck revenues have "assured success this year against a questionable position at the same time last year."

Truck tolls during March totaled $438,858, a new record. In March, 1956, they were $295,204.

A total of 613,823 passenger cars and 156,900 trucks used the road during March, compared with 499,946 cars and 114,278 trucks in March, 1956.

Early Wynn Yields Only One Hit; Indians Beat Giants 6-4

Fans Two In Five Innings

Throws Home Run Ball To Willie Mays

MIAMI, Fla., (AP) — Early Wynn of Cleveland pitched himself out of convalescent status Thursday night with a convincing five-inning performance that yielded only one hit — a homer — to the New York Giants.

The Indians won the game 6-4. Wynn fanned two Giants, the 33-year-old righthander didn't walk a man, and was seldom behind a batter in the ball-and-strike department.

More than 5,000 fans at Miami Stadium took Wynn's showing as proof he was back to normal after being out of action with a sore right hip since March 17. He has been taking treatments at Daytona Beach since the Tribe broke camp at Tucson, Ariz., April 1.

At bat in the third inning, Wynn poked a low, steamy line drive that seemed sure to go for a hit until Giants shortstop Daryl Spencer slid on his stomach to catch the ball and start a double play completed by Red Schoendienst and Whitey Lockman.

Wynn, starting for Cleveland, was belted in the first inning for a home run over the centerfield fence by Willie Mays, whose training-season string had reached 10 earlier.

The big righthander actually surprised himself with his performance. He said before the game that he would go as far as he could — probably three or four innings. He did not appear tired at the end of five, however.

Mike Garcia, who took over the Indians' pitching work in the sixth, was clouted for three of New York's runs in one and one-third innings and rookies Dick Tomanek and Stan Titula finished the game.

Class D Postponed Games Re-Scheduled

Four of seven postponed games in the Class D basketball league will be played tomorrow, Charles "Rusty" Tomlinson, assistant manager of the Memorial building, announced today.

At 9 a.m. St. Paul A will play Christian and at 10 a.m. St. Paul B will engage the Methodist quintet. In one other Saturday morning contest, Lutheran plays St. Paul C at 11 a.m.

The other Saturday game is at 1:30 p.m. between Presbyterian A and Presbyterian B.

The remaining three postponed games will be held Wednesday morning. At 9 a.m. Methodist will play St. Paul C. Lutheran meets Presbyterian A at 10 a.m. The final contest is scheduled for 11 a.m. between Baptist and Presbyterian B.

Tomlinson said Wednesday's clashes will bring the Class D schedule to a close.

St. Louis Hawks Beat Boston Celtics 96-94

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "There is no pressure on us," said the jubilant St. Louis Hawks as they headed for the seventh and deciding game against the Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs.

Cliff Hagan's last-gasp tip-in beat the Celtics 96-94 Thursday night and tied up the series at three games apiece.

Redlegs Score 7-4 Victory Over Senators

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs seem to get a lot of batting power out of their first baseman regardless of who it is.

Ted Kluszewski's ailing back and his condition—or lack of it—has been a conversation piece throughout spring training with the reports changing almost daily. The big first sacker has watched a number of spring training games from the bench—whether it be because of his back or his own so-called "time-table" of conditioning.

Thursday night was one of those occasions and his substitute, George Crowe, hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning that gave the Redlegs a 7-4 victory over the Washington Senators in a game at Washington.

But "Klu" also had a hand in that rally. He got a pinch hit single which helped set the stage for Crowe's wallop.

The game wound up the spring series between the Senators and the Redlegs with the Cincinnati holding a 7-3 advantage. The Redlegs meet the Baltimore Orioles here tonight.

Crowe also contributed a double to the Redlegs' 11-hit attack in Thursday night's game.

Joe Nuxhall, favored to be Cincinnati's opening day pitcher Tuesday, pitched seven full innings and to one batter in the eighth. He gave up six of the Senator hits and all of their runs. He yielded home runs to Roy Sievers and Ed Fitzgerald. Tom Acker allowed three hits after he relieved Nuxhall.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts did considerable experimenting with his lineup. He started his regular outfield of Frank Robinson, Gus Bell and Wally Post but lifted them early in favor of Art Schult, bonus player Bob Hendrich and Pete Whisenant.

Shortstop Roy McMillan also got the night off and Don Hoak, the Reds' hottest spring training hitter, filled in for him. Second baseman Johnny Temple also sat out the last couple of innings after Kluszewski batted for him and Rocky Bridges finished the game at second.

Tebbets indicated he would start Hal Jeffcoat on the mound against the Orioles tonight.

Top Sluggers Hit Homers

Redbirds, Indians, Phils, Cubs Win

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Some of the game's top sluggers—Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Willie Mays, Stan Musial—hit homers Thursday, but only Musial's circuit blow did his team any good.

He stroked it off Billy Pierce as the Redbirds blanked the Chicago White Sox 5-0 behind the nifty pitching of Lindy McDaniel and Willard Schmidt. Hobie Landrith also homered for St. Louis.

The home run by Williams was only one of two hits collected by the Red Sox off the combined efforts of rookie pitchers Jack Sanford and Angelo Lipetri of the Philadelphia Phils. Philadelphia won 7-1, helped by four unearned runs.

Mantle and Hank Bauer connected for the Yankees, but the champions dropped a 5-5 verdict to their Richmond (International League) farmhands.

Mays' homer spoiled an otherwise brilliant five-inning effort by Early Wynn, who made his first appearance of the spring. The Cleveland pitching mainstay had been bothered by a hip injury. The Indians came up with two runs in the ninth to break a tie and win 6-4.

George Crowe blasted a three-run homer in the eighth inning to give Cincinnati a 7-4 victory over the Washington Senators.

The Chicago Cubs were paced by Dee Fondy's two home runs as they edged the Baltimore Orioles 7-6.

Dale Long and Paul Smith homered for the Pirates, who whipped the Detroit Tigers 10-2. Rookie Don Lee was pounded for eight hits and seven runs in the first five innings.

The Kansas City A's pleased 8,331 home fans by scoring four times in the ninth to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-4. Don Newcombe pitched three scoreless frames for the Brooks.

3 More Bowling Teams Pass 3,000 Mark

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP) — Three thousand used to be a whale of a score in the open team event of the American Bowling Congress tournament.

In the 54th renewal of the championship event it isn't even enough to get a club into the top 20 standings.

Three more teams passed the coveted 3,000 mark Thursday night marking the 23rd time in the first 34 days of the 1957 tournament that this feat has been accomplished. The previous record for 3,000 games in one ABC tournament was seventeen.

The Sports Center Bowl, San Francisco, hit 3,021 and the Sterling Beer team of Louisville, Ky., tallied 3,004 as Jim Spalding fired 706.

The Chicago Peter Hand Beer still lead the open division with their 3,126 of March 18.

SEES 16 VICTORIES

MEMPHIS (AP) — Bob Keegan, the Chicago White Sox hardluck pitcher, thinks he can show his 1954 form this season and that would mean about 16 victories.

Keegan, 35, missed part of the 1955 campaign with a bone spur on his right foot and last year he was hospitalized for an operation.

"I feel real good now and I've been getting my fast ball over this spring," he said. "But I need more control on my breaking stuff. My trouble right now is that the batters have been laying back, waiting for my fast ball."

Patterson, Jackson Fight Sought

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Floyd Patterson, at 21 the youngest champion ever to wear the heavyweight crown, may defend his title for the first time in England this summer. Then again, he may not.

Why not? "Two things," said manager Cus (short for Custer) D'Amato. "I would like to have Floyd re-matched with Hurricane Jackson, for one."

"And there is an English law now in effect under which at least one of the fighters in a championship bout must be a British subject."

Who would the other fighter be, if the law is repealed?

"I suspect it would be Nino Valdes of Cuba," D'Amato confided. "Valdes has enjoyed considerable success over there."

"But Jackson is the logical contender. The last time they met Patterson was the winner in a 12-round split decision. There has been a lot of talk back east about this fight. It would be either in Philadelphia, Camden, Jersey City or New York."

What if the English match can be arranged?

"I'm told it would attract a three-quarters of a million dollar gate, perhaps a million dollars," D'Amato grinned.

"We have received attractive offers from Jack Solomon and Harry Levine, promoters in England. I understand, if allowed, it would be the first heavyweight championship bout between two foreigners there."

Any other offers?

"Oh, several others. This is just one of them. We are considering them all, and the best offer is the one we'll accept."

In any case, it would be young Patterson's first defense of the championship since he knocked out Archie Moore last November in Chicago.

Jones 3-1 Favorite Over Chico Vejar

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Fifth-ranked Ralph (Tiger) Jones ruled a 3-1 favorite over Chico Vejar for tonight's middleweight clash of television favorites.

Jones, a toe-to-toe slugger from Yonkers, N. Y., was expected to weigh in at 156, about three pounds more than the former drama student from Stamford, Conn.

It will be the 31st television appearance by Jones and the 26th for Vejar.

Jones, 29, is a busy fighter whose most effective work is in clinches. He has a record of 43 victories, 17 losses and three draws. He has scored 11 knockouts.

Vejar, 25, is a former welterweight who has fought six middleweight bouts since December. He is unranked in the division.

NBC television and radio will carry the bout at 10 p.m. (EST).

STILL PONDERING LINEUP

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., (AP) — Manager Kerby Farrell of the Cleveland Indians is still pondering over the lineup he will use in the season's opener against the Chicago White Sox at Cleveland Tuesday.

"I'm gonna wait," he said Thursday night. "We have three games to play after tonight and I don't want to make up my mind until we play 'em."

Farrell was counting on Bob Lemon as his opening day pitcher, but now he is not sure. Lemon flew to Long Beach, Calif., early Thursday to attend his sister's funeral and is expected to rejoin the team in Milwaukee Sunday.

Ford Leads In Golf Tourney

Paces First Round With 68, 2 Under Par

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Dong Ford, still displaying the touch that carried him to victory in the Masters Tournament last Sunday, was front man by one shot going into today's second round of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

The husky, 34-year-old professional playing out of Mahopac, N.Y., put together a pair of 34s Thursday to take the first round lead with a 68, two under par for the 6,720-yard Sedgefield Country Club course that yielded only three sub-par rounds to a field of 135.

A stroke back at 69 were Marty Furgol, Lemonte, Ill., and the darkest of dark horses, Greensboro amateur Willard Gourley.

Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who has won at Greensboro six times, including the last two years, had a rocky 37 finish for a 72 after opening with nine pars.

Five men came in at par 70: Julius Boros, Southern Pines, N.C.; Gardner Dickinson, Panama City Beach, Fla.; Bobby Maxwell, Abilene, Tex.; Al Bessellink, Grossingers, N.Y.; and Mike Souchak, Grossingers'.

Triangular Meet Today At Leetonia

Thirteen Leetonia local lettermen were to be on hand when the Leetonia Bears are host to Greenford and North Jackson in a triangular track meet here this afternoon.

Coach Virgil Roman and his Leetonia thincads will participate in four meets at home this season and four on the road, including the county and district meets to be held at Salem May 10 and 14, respectively.

Lettermen returning are Bob Peet, Lou Altomare, Larry Morris, Bill Snyder, Al Kornbau, Rocco Gallo, Chuck Peppel, Chuck Nicolette, Chum Hedl, Jim Rance, George Altman, John Roose and Joe Mango.

Other meets will be held as follows:

April 16, North Lima and Goshen at Leetonia; April 23 at Sebring; April 27, Ohio Wesleyan relays at Delaware; May 4, relays at Mentor; and May 7, Poland, home.

Giardello-Calhoun Match Is Cancelled

CLEVELAND (AP) — An eye injury suffered by Joey Giardello has caused the cancellation of a boxing show scheduled at the Cleveland Arena next Tuesday night.

Matchmaker Larry Atkins Thursday called off the show, in which Giardello was to meet Rory Calhoun in the 10-round feature, after a cut was opened under Giardello's left eye in training. Atkins said he hoped to sign the two highly rated middleweights for a bout in May or June.

BATTING AVERAGE DROPS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tony Kubek, the New York Yankees rookie sensation, has slipped so much against minor league pitching that manager Casey Stengel might decide against starting him in left field in the opening game against Washington Tuesday.

After his great start in Florida, Tony's batting average has dropped to .270 with only one hit in his last 14 times up against minor league hurlers. Thursday, he went hitless in 4 AB as Richmond defeated the Yanks 6-5.

Facts and Fancies About Sports

By MARK MILLER

Tom Welsh Insurance of Youngstown has grabbed first place in the Timberlane Bowling Tournament with a three-game series total of 3,229 after the first week of competition.

In second place is Dux Club of West Virginia, 3,136, and in the third spot is Sunset Lanes 2 of Sharon, Pa., with 3,128. The only Salem team in the running is Gordon Scott, in ninth place with a series total of 3,004.

High series total for an individual is held by Lee Rutter of Martins Ferry, bowling for G.A.M. Beer. His total is 647. Rutter also holds the high for a single game, rolling 255.

The tournament will continue through the month of April, with games being in shifts at 3, 6, and 9 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

DURING AN ARCHERY CLUB meeting recently, Art Loesch was elected president; M. H. Miles, vice president; and Mildred Alek, secretary-treasurer.

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL coaches Earle Bruce, football; Karl Zellers, basketball; John Cabas, basketball; and Sam Pridon, basketball; attended the Coaches Clinic recently at Youngstown South Field House.

Bob McNea, football coach at Mansfield, and Chuck Chickineo, football coach at Sharon, Pa., talked on offensive and defensive football strategy, while Harold M. Andrews, basketball coach for Kent Roosevelt, state tourney runners-up in Ohio, and Bud Lyeckock, basketball coach at Sharon, talked on basketball.

JOHN BAKER, FORMER Salem grid star, is one of the lettermen out for football spring practice at Miami University. John is six foot tall and weighs 190 pounds and will be a senior next year. He has been out for football all four years at the school.

DICK HARRIS, outstanding golfer from Salem, will be assistant golf pro at Edgewood Valley Country Club at LaGrange, Ill. during the summer season. Harris was assistant pro at the Sunset Golf and Country Club at St. Petersburg, Fla. during the winter months.

THE PITTSBURGH Pirates will conduct their second annual high school baseball clinic at Forbes Field Saturday morning, April 27, prior to the Pirates-Brooklyn Dodgers game, according to announcement made by General Manager Joe L. Brown. For further details, coaches should contact Jack Berger, in care of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Forbes Field, Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

THE CLEVELAND Browns will play a pre-season game in the stadium Saturday night, Sept. 14, against the Detroit Lions. It was announced today by Coach Paul Brown.

The Lions, who now feature Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, the ex-Ohio State All-American, in their backfield, will be making their first appearance in Cleveland since they defeated the Browns, 19-3 in a pre-season game in 1955.

A 100 LAP FEATURE will headline the card when stock car racing opens at the Canfield Speedway April 20. More than 25 entries have been filed with Speedway Manager Charlie Findlay.

DID YOU KNOW that Ohio is still the nation's leading producer of harness horse foals, but Illinois, anchored by rich state-sponsored colt stakes open only to homebred talent, is rapidly closing the gap.

The U. S. Trotting Association announced that it has registered 670 Ohio-owned foals of 1956, enabling the Buckeye State to run its national-leading streak to 10 consecutive years.

Revere, Mass. — Bobby McCue, 136½, Boston, knocked out Benny (Red) Randall, 133¼, Halifax, 4.

Hefty Turnover Has Occurred In Big League Baseball In 6 Months

NEW YORK (AP) — There's been a hefty six months turnover in major league baseball. Teams will have about 25 new players in the opening day lineups next week.

The Philadelphia Phillies will have four changes: first baseman Ed Bouchee, shortstop Chico Fernandez and outfielders Rip Repulski and Bob Bowman. Bouchee and Bowman are rookies up from Miami of the International League. Repulski was acquired from St. Louis and Fernandez from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The New York Giants will introduce shortstop phenom Andree Rodgers. They'll also reintroduce Whitey Lockman, back from the Cards and Gail Harris, recalled from Minneapolis.

The Chicago Cubs will have third baseman Ray Jablonski, picked up from Cincinnati, and Bob Speake, brought up from the Pacific Coast League. Chicago also will have a new catcher with either ex-Yankee Charley Silvera or rookie Cal Neenan, up from Richmond, Va., likely to start.

Cincinnati will have Don Hoak at third base. The Cardinals have a new left fielder and No. 4 batter in Del Ennis, the former Philadelphia star. The Dodgers probably will have Gino Cimoli in left field. He was used sparingly in 1956 but has been a spring training sensation this year.

The Milwaukee Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates have remained pat on regulars.

In the American, short stop Billy Hunter and outfielder Bob Cerv, both acquired from the Yanks, will be in the opening Kansas City Athletics lineup as will second sacker Milt Graff, a former Yank farmhand.

The Chicago White Sox fans will get a glimpse of rookie Jim Landis in the outfield with Bubba Phillips, a utility man last season, at third base and Jim Rivera, an outfielder, at first base.

Cleveland has rookie outfielder Roger Maris. George Strickland, a '56 handyman, likely will start at secondbase, and Bobby Avila, veteran second sacker, will be at third.

Third baseman Frank Malzone and Gene Mauch, a second baseman, are the new Boston Red Sox. Malzone failed in a brief spring trial in '56. Mauch was purchased from the Coast League late last season.

Tony Kubek, in left field, is the only one to crack the starting lineup for the New York Yankees. He hit .331 for Denver of the American Assn. last season. Detroit may start Eddie Robinson, obtained from Kansas City, at first base.

The Washington Senators and Baltimore Orioles opening day lineups will be about the same.

600 Attend Columbiana PTA Open House, Program

High School Athletes Receive Letter Awards

COLUMBIANA — Open house, and an elementary school musical program at Dixon School, Wednesday evening, in connection with the April meeting of Parent Teacher Organization, attracted an attendance of more than 600.

During open house, rooms were in charge of the respective teachers, whom parents had an opportunity to meet and view a display of the work of their children.

The musical program of vocal numbers was directed by Mrs. Harriet Warner, instructor in music in the elementary department.

Officers elected for next school year, beginning next September, were: Mrs. Charles Douglas, president; James Garstick, vice president; Waldo Schaig, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. James Renfrew, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald Perrin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Grant, treasurer.

COACH RICHARD Berryman has made letter awards to Columbiana High School athletes, cheerleaders and managers.

Varsity awards in basketball, Dowd, Davidson, Murphy, Poulton,

In The Service

Sgt. Robert E. Spencer

T-Sgt. Robert E. Spencer of Alliance has been assigned as recruiting officer of the Salem Air Force Recruiting Station which maintains offices in the post office on Fridays.

A veteran of 14½ years service, Spencer was radio operator, mechanic, and gunner during World War II, and the Korean Conflict. He flew 50 missions over Germany and also missions out of Okinawa into Korea on a B-29 Bomber.

Warrick and Bill Russell.

Varsity awards to cheerleaders, Doris Gross, Heather Haney, Polly Way, Betty Rapp.

Awards to school managers, Bill Brown, Art Campbell, Leland Mackall, Jim Rupert, David Turnbull, Bob Porter, John Longworth, Bill Campbell, Larry Douglas.

A tree planting on the grounds around Dixon School, Wednesday afternoon, was sponsored by the Columbiana Garden Club and the Village Garden Club and witnessed by the children of the school.

Six trees were planted, two Marline locusts, two Globehead locusts, one maple and one flowering crab. The trees were obtained from Paul Wilms, nurseryman, who did the planting.

GOSHEN COLLEGE Choir of Goshen, Ind., will present a program in Fairfield School auditorium at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Alfred Ferguson, Columbiana, is chairman of a committee of Columbiana and Mahoning county strawberry growers to complete details of an advertising program the coming berry season designed to promote marketing in the Youngstown, East Liverpool and Steubenville areas.

The program will include spot announcements by radio and TV, newspaper advertising, announcements in the Youngstown retailers' publication, and invitations to buyers to visit berry fields and see how the berries are produced.

Market and price information from Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Youngstown will be provided growers every morning through a Youngstown radio station.

Refrigerated apple storages in the area will be rented for pre-cooling of berries before they go to market, and a committee will contact market outlets in Columbus, Cincinnati and other points to the south for the handling of berries from this area if the market needs relief from pressure in the peak season.

GROWERS INTERESTED in the tour to Maryland to leave the home of Joseph Less, RD 5, Salem, at 1:15 p.m. Sunday, May 26, are requested to contact at once Floyd Lower, Columbiana county agricultural agent, Lisbon.

Transportation to Wellsville for the meeting of Columbiana County Council of the American Legion will be available at the Columbiana Legion home at 7 p.m. today.

Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, worthy matron and worthy patron of Leetonia mother chapter, conducted initiation of two candidates for Columbiana Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at its 37th anniversary celebration Tuesday evening.

An Easter season program following the lodge meeting included colored slides, readings by Delores Souder and Marjorie Cole. Margaret Lamoneha, soloist, was accompanied by Joan Kunkle. Lunch was served the 96 in attendance.

THESE LEETONIA ST. PATRICK School students will compete in the Columbiana County parochial spelling bee at East Liverpool on Saturday. Shown with Sister Marie DeLourdes, they are (l. to r.) James Less, Mary Huffnagle and Guy Falzetta. They outspelled others in their school recently to advance to the county event. The county champion enters the Canton finals April 26.

Newton Falls Gets 'Show-Cause' Order

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Newton Falls officials today were ordered to appear before the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board May 21 to show why their application for another sewage discharge permit should not be denied.

The board said the Trumbull County village has collected more than $58,000 in sewer service charges but has not employed engineers to revise plans for a sewage treatment plant.

The village had a population of 4,451 in 1950 and has grown since then. The village discharges raw sewage into the Mahoning River, the board said.

The "show cause" order is the first legal step of a series that could lead to fining the village $500 a day.

Motive Is Sought In Slaying Of Woman

BARTON, Ohio (AP)—Authorities are searching for a motive in the death of Mrs. Margaret Denham, 76, whose body was found sprawled in a pool of blood in her home in Barton, (Belmont County) Thursday.

Coroner W. J. Shepard called the death "definitely a case of homicide."

He said Mrs. Denham had been hit at least once on the head with a pop bottle and then apparently dragged from the confectionery and service station she owned into her home. Pieces of the bottle were strewn on the floor of the store, Shepard said.

County Realtors To Hear Speaker

LISBON — C. A. Tharsher of Akron, general supervisor of area development of the Ohio Edison Co., will be the principal speaker at the Columbiana County realtors dinner meeting Wednesday April 24, at 6:30 p.m. at the Hotel Wick.

Deane Beck, manager of the Lisbon office of the Ohio Edison Co., obtained the speaker.

County Treasurer Vincent Judge, associate member of the board, will also discuss the county's tax structure and will compare tax rates with those of other counties in Ohio.

Patrol Stops Driver After Hit-Run Death

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Walter Mosley Allen, 26, of Huntington, W. Va., was being held in the Lawrence County jail here today after being stopped at a highway patrol roadblock following a hit-skip accident Thursday night.

Allen was stopped in front of the South Point patrol post after a restaurant proprietor telephoned a description of the car that struck and killed Floyd Freeman, 44, of Rt. 3, Ironton. Freeman was crossing U.S. 52 about two miles west of South Point when hit, patrolmen said.

PAY, OR GO TO JAIL

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Noon today was set as deadline for Mike Senko of Weatherfield Twp. to pay $828 for a lot he bought at a sheriff's sale for delinquent taxes. If he doesn't pay, he goes to jail, Judge G. H. Birrell told him Thursday.

When he bought the lot in February, Senko paid by check then stopped payment on the check. He told the judge he did this because he discovered he had bid against an old friend and he would rather the friend got the land.

Reweds Mate Whose Lover He Killed

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "We've never really stopped loving each other."

That's how a young couple explained their remarriage Thursday night—less than six hours after the husband was acquitted in the slaying of his ex-wife's lover.

After the ceremony, Robert Earl Sutton, 29, a Dallas oil promoter, and attractive, darkhaired Freddie Davis Sutton, 26, left for San Diego, Calif., where their children have been staying during Sutton's five-day trial.

A Maricopa County superior jury acquitted Sutton Thursday of first-degree murder in the fatal shooting of a onetime friend, William K. Boone, who became a love rival after the Suttons were separated.

Boone, 28, a former disc jockey, was shot Dec. 4 outside Mrs. Sutton's home, and died 32 days later. Sutton admitted shooting Boone in trial testimony but said it was in self-defense.

Mrs. Sutton testified she and Boone had stayed at several motels together while she still was legally married to Sutton.

"I'm happy with the world," Sutton said after the verdict was announced. "I hold no ill feelings toward anyone. Thank God, those jurors believed my story which was true."

The Suttons walked hand-in-hand out of the courthouse. Later, they told newsmen they were remarrying for the welfare of their three young children and because they were still in love.

County Industrial Arts Teachers Hold Meeting

LISBON — Industrial arts teachers of Columbiana County's five high schools held their first joint meeting Wednesday in the office of County Supt. James L. McBride.

The aim was to create a uniform program in industrial arts in all the schools, and the teachers accepted the assignments given to them, according to McBride.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school supervisor, was in charge of the meeting. Another meeting will be held in May, the date to be announced later.
